SALVATION

If you are not a believer in Jesus Christ, or aren't sure and would like to become one, then you need to believe that Jesus Christ was and is the Son of God, that he was God who became a man, that he lived a sinless and perfect life, keeping the Law of God perfect in every way, that he kept faith perfectly, and that he was crucified on that cruel cross for your sins, mine and the entire world - he died for our sins! His death on the cross paid the penalty fully, one time for all sins that we have ever committed and that we will ever commit. He died; he went down into the bowels of the earth, even into Hell, and was raised from the dead on the third day in a resurrected, eternal body. He ascended back into heaven, was seated at the right hand of God, and is now Lord over heaven and earth. He is coming again to judge the world, to raise the dead, where he will give an eternal, resurrected, glorified body to everyone that has believed on him as their Lord and Savior, and to establish his kingdom on earth.

You come become a Christian right now as you read this by personally placing your faith and trust in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior; believing that he is God's only begotten Son, that he died on the cross for you and that he was raised from the dead and is now seated in heaven at the right hand of God the Father. "Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved." Acts 16:31a And when you do trust Christ, and Christ alone, as your Lord and Savior, then go to God the Father in heaven in prayer and tell him so. Tell him that you have believed on his Son, thank him for his Son, and thank him for forgiving your sins and saving you! "That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord", and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved." Romans 10:9,10 "For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." Romans 10:13 "Therefore, being justified by faith (declared righteous), we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Romans 5:1

2012 to 2019 Notes

Classes 1-5

The Bible tells us that no man knows the day, or hour, that Jesus Christ will return to earth, not even the Son. But the Lord tells us that we should be able to discern the times and seasons. We might not know the exact day, or hour, of the arrival of Jesus Christ, but we might be able to come close to the year of the antichrist. Seasons refers to a basic three month period of time, while the times refers to a much longer period of time characterized by the things that transpire in it. And we know that the Father has already decided the exact year, month, day and hour his Son is going to return to earth.

Now we switch over to Satan, who also has his plans to place his son in a position of international power as the physical ruler of the world. We refer to this one as the first beast, the beast from the sea, the man of sin and the antichrist. We know that Satan has a goal and is working on a timetable. We cannot say what specific say he has in mind when this will be, but from studying a wide range of subjects there seems to be a determined time when this will occur. This time will occur when certain astronomical events and astrological signs converge. It is the convergence of these things in the heavens that will signal the arrival of the antichrist.

The antichrist's "arrival" may come about as the result of two concepts. 1) where he actually arrives on earth from the heavens, the means by which can be left up to our imagination. 2) as the result of genetic manipulation with a human mother, which was prophesied in the book of Genesis. This would be along the lines of the Nephilim.

Since the very beginning there have been two seeds in view; the seed of God born from a woman, who was Jesus Christ 4,000 years later; and the seed of the serpent, who will also be born of a woman, who will be the antichrist yet to be born – or maybe already is! One will be the true Messiah of God; the other will be the pagan Messiah; one righteous and the other evil; one looked for by all believers in Christ, the other looked for by Masons, occultists and all the other religious groups on earth. "And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel." Genesis 3:15

Satan tried for thousands of years to prevent the seed of God being born on earth, but failed. He then tried to kill him after he was born, and failed again. For God had a certain date, manner, place and purpose for his death, and that were for him to die on a cross to pay the penalty for our sins. It was then he tried to kill Christ on the cross and he succeeded! But God raised him from the dead. So what he thought was his crowning victory turned out to be his very defeat.

Concerning the birth of the last days antichrist, God is not preventing it, but restraining it, or holding back the process, so it will come about according to his timetable! 2 Thessalonians 2:6,7 tell us about this concerning the ministry of the Holy Spirit, who is restraining the arrival of the antichrist so it will come about according to the timetable of God. "For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way." "And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way." Being taken out of the way, out of the midst, has the idea of standing in someone's way holding them back from what they're trying to do, until you get out of their way. Now they are free to move forward in doing whatever it is they want to do.

Satan has been trying since the very beginning of man to have his ruler of the world firmly in place ruling the world under him, and he has been successful down over the years. Babylon's Nimrod, then Tammuz, the Pharaoh's of Egypt, the rulers of Greece, Rome, various other nations around the world on down to the time of the crucifixion of Christ. But ever since the advent of the Church Age the Holy Spirit has been restraining the satanic evil of a final world ruler being set in place, even though Satan and his forces have certainly been trying to do that. But once the restraining ministry of the Holy Spirit is removed, or has been taken out of the way, then Satan is free to do what he's been planning to do for years and now he can move on unimpaired toward his ultimate goal.

It also tells us that whatever timetable Satan and his forces are operating by, and whatever convergence concepts there are that might be involved, will be in full force and operation. Once the restraining ministry of the Holy Spirit has been removed, then the restraint on all evil is removed and Satan is now free to go on toward his ultimate goal of a world ruler, who we call the antichrist!

So the question is, do they have a timetable they are operating by? Is there some cosmic alignment concept time concept that will signify its completion! We now can bring into our thinking the ideas of what is their plan? And when do they expect to complete it?

Symbols play a large role in the occultism of Babylonian freemasonry, and so do numbers, for numbers are used for hidden codes and meanings. But the Bible uses numbers as well: 3 = trinity, 5 = grace, 6 = number of man, 7 = perfection, 8 = new beginnings, 9 = completion, 12 = governmental organization, 40 = testing, probation. The Bible tells us that the number of the name of the antichrist, (or the number of his title), is 666. From what we know about numbers, 6 is the number of man, 66 would be perfected man, and 666 would be perfected, deified man!

Everything that the group that is preparing the way for their world ruler is numerically perfect and significant. For example, on 9-11-2001 Flight 11 crashed into the twin towers architecturally 11. Flight 11 had 11 crew members, New York was the 11th state, and New York City has 11 letters. Afghanistan, the first nation we attacked afterward has 11 letters. George W. Bush has 11 letters. The Pentagon, which was also attacked on 9-11, has 11 letters. Coincidence? Also on 9-11 Flight 77 hit the Pentagon, which sits on the 77th meridian. The foundation stone of the Pentagon was laid on 9-11-41 in a Masonic ceremony. Coincidence?

To the occultists the number 11 represents dark vision. Doubled to 22 it represents action. Tripled to 33 it speaks of accomplishment. President Kennedy was assassinated on the 11th month, the 22nd day, and on the 33rd parallel. Which was a coup d'état for the USA by these now occultists. Coincidence?

WWI ended in 1918 on the 11th month, the 11th day, and the 11th hour. Armistice Day. Coincidence? The number people dial for an emergency is 911. Coincidence? The antichrist is the 11th horn, Daniel 7:8 Coincidence?

The number 13 is prominent in Satan's earthly forces. It is found in the Great Seal of the US. 13 colonies, 13 olive branches, 13 olives on the branches, 13 stars and stripes in the Great Seal, 13 letters in E Pluribus Unum, 13 stars above the eagle's head, 13 layers of the pyramid, 13 letters in Annuet Coeptis. Coincidence? The number 13 is prominent in Satan's earthly forces. It is found in the Great Seal of the US. 13 colonies, 13 olive branches, 13 olives on the branches, 13 stars and stripes in the Great Seal, 13 letters in E Pluribus Unum, 13 stars above the eagle's head, 13 layers of the pyramid, 13 letters in Annuet Coeptis. Coincidence?

Roosevelt was a 32nd degree Mason and the 32 president of the US. Truman was a 33rd degree Mason and the 33rd president of the US. Coincidence?

The number in Greek of the Lord's name, Iesous, is 888. While the number of the name of Apollo, the pagan Messiah is 888 also!

$888 + 888 = 1,776$ a cardinal number of the occultists and the date chosen for the founding of America. It is also the date inscribed on the pyramid for the beginning of the work of the New World Order!

In the Chaldean numbering system 666 is 1110. $666 + 1110 = 1776$. In 1992 President George H. W. Bush announced that all the preparatory work had been completed and now the New World Order was beginning. $1992 - 1776 = 216$ years. 216 is a very cardinal number with the occultists, $6 \times 6 \times 6 = 216$; (12 - the number of government) $6 + 6 + 6 = 216$. Coincidence?

Nimrod's phallus, aka, the Washington monument is 6,660 inches tall, (some say 6,666), and 666 inches wide at the base. It is put at 555 feet tall, and some say the foundation is 111 feet deep.

Now we know what is going to happen, the true Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is going to return to earth and establish his kingdom. We don't know exactly when, but we do know the characteristics that will surround that event. We also know that Satan is going to have his son, the antichrist, whom he will place in power to rule over the world for him. We don't when, but we are learning about the characteristics around that event.

The Babylonian forces of freemasonry also know what is going to happen, at least those at the top of the pyramid do, and that is, one day, their pagan messiah will rule over the world with them ruling under him, or so they think. This pagan messiah will come about as the result of: one, him being born of a certain human bloodline here on earth, probably with Nephilim DNA that has been genetically manipulated over the years; two, a part celestial being, part human from a human mother making him a hybrid, where the antichrist will be "born" either on earth, or somewhere in the galaxies; three, him coming up from the bowels of the earth; four, the DNA of Nimrod is found and formed into a new human being having a human mother.

They know what is going to happen, but they don't know when. That is, most of them don't know when, but those at the top of the group have some idea as to when. They have arrived at this knowledge of when through their own prophets and prophetesses, through much investigation over the millennia, through calender dating, through numbers, and through the convergences of especially significant constellations.

America was established by this occult group from Europe as the vehicle to bring all this about. Now lest one has a fit over this, we need to see that there have been forces of good working in America under Jesus Christ, and there have been forces of evil working here under Satan. And even though America was founded by Christians, and has been predominantly a Christian nation. This powerful group of occultists, under the pope, conquered America from the top down and have been directing it toward their evil goal for over 200 years. One of their main victories was in the Civil War. They won because three years after the war was over in 1868, they founded a business corporation named the United States of America, which has been the ruling force over all since then.

But we should not be shocked by this because the same thing happened to God's own nation Israel! When David was king, Israel went along godly lines. But when his son, Solomon, became king he allowed the Babylonian forces to take over his nation directing it toward their goal of world dominion. The kingdom was divided after he died between the north and the south and the north followed the Babylonian agenda until God destroyed it in 722 BC by the Assyrians. Years later the southern kingdom followed suit and God judged them in 586 BC by the Babylonians. And finally they were wiped out by the Romans, (Babylon once again), in 70 AD.

America started out great and has been great for many years, but look where it has ended up today! Even though there are millions of fine, decent, patriotic Christians and non-Christians, who want what God wants for this country, this ship of state is sailing away from anything connected to God into more and more evil; all being directed by this occultic group. They are steering it in the direction of bringing about Satan's final man of sin. And tragically millions of Christians are acting as his agents, or dupes, helping him pave the way!

Christian churches are championing the policies of this government; a government that is ruled by criminals and sociopaths; a government that has turned anti Christ, anti American and anti the constitution, not knowing that it is a business corporation, USA, Inc., and that it is controlled by the Queen of England under the pope! Thousands of our boys and girls have died on the battlefield in the Middle East, and over two hundred thousand have come back broken in spirit and in body. Little did they know that they were fighting and dying for a corporation controlled by the pope to bring about the antichrist's new world order! The love, honor and nobility of our fighting men and women are not in question, but they have been deceived. But the churches in America that have been supporting Satan's agenda, even though they think they are right, are without excuse because they could have learned the truth, but didn't want it.

We need to remember that God has a plan in which he has determined the exact time for his Son to return to earth to rule over it. And the Babylonian forces of evil have been planning for centuries for the time when Nimrod returns, either being brought back to life through his DNA, or by him doing it through his son as the seed of Satan.

Their plan for this event has been stymied, held back by the restraining ministry of the Holy Spirit. So what do you think will happen when the Holy Spirit stops restraining them? They will now be free to move forward according to their "grand" plan unhindered. And in this grand plan is a specific time they have in mind, a particular year, which may signal the beginning of the Tribulation, or a more frightening prospect - the middle of the Tribulation! And this number is indicated in code on the pyramid found in our dollar bill.

The first thing we want to note is that the pyramid on the dollar bill is not the pyramid in Giza; it's a different pyramid. We notice that the angle of the pyramid is much steeper than the one in Giza telling us that we are looking at a different pyramid. The pyramid on the dollar bill is like those in meso-America, and concepts pertaining to those pyramids will be needed in deciphering what is going on. And as further proof the original seal of the United States was a meso-America stepped pyramid!

Now the Holy Spirit will be taken out of the way, or out of the midst, that is, he will no longer be restraining Satan and his forces from going on with their plan for global governance. The question is why? Not many people have asked the question why the Holy Spirit will be taken out of the way to allow Satan go forward with his plan for global governance and succeed for awhile. But some have come up with a variety of suggestions. I cover this more in depth in my online study called "The Divine Council".

One thought is that in the angelic conflict God has allowed Satan the opportunity to prove that he can do a better job of running the earth than Yahweh. And, as his track record shows, he's made a mess of things. His argument could come back in regarding his failures that he hasn't had the full freedom to do everything that he wants to do! That God has held him back. So by removing all restraints on Satan he now has the freedom to go for it.

Now if the Great Seal of America, which was orchestrated by the occult forces working in America, contains the information on what's going on and when it will happen, then we need to take a closer look at it. One of the first things we notice are the two phrases on the reverse of the seal, "Annuit Coeptis" and "Novus Ordo Seclorum". What do they mean? Why are they there? And where do they come from?

The first one is, "He favors or approves our undertaking", and a "New Secular Order", or a "New Order of the Ages", or, as we know it today, a New World Order. The designer of the Great Seal, Charles Thompson, took a line out of Virgil's Aenid, "Jupiter omnipotes, audacibus annus coeptis", "All-powerful Jupiter favors the daring undertaking", but condensed it down to "Annuit Coeptis".

The pagan prophetess, Sibyl, also used the terms "novus ordo seclorum", when talking about the time when Apollo, the son of Jupiter, would return to earth to rule the world. The symbolism used of Obama running for office pointed out that he was the son of Jupiter. So out of millions of books in the world, why did the Masons choose these two phrases that dealt with this theme? Jupiter/Jesus and his son Apollo ruling the world?

Virgil's life deals with a prayer by Ascanius to the Roman god, Jupiter, the same one known by the Greeks as Zeus. Jupiter was the Roman's replacement for Yahweh as the greatest of gods, a counter-Yahweh, or anti-Yahweh. And his son, Apollo, was the counter-Jesus, or anti-Jesus, or anti-Christ!

And remember Pergamum? Pergamum was the place according to the book of Revelations, where the throne of Satan was. We also know that it was the throne, altar and temple of Zeus, the father of Apollo. "I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth." Revelation 2:13

It was this very throne that was dismantled and moved to East Berlin and reconstructed at the museum there. It was a copy of this temple that was constructed for Obama's inauguration, (or whatever it was), where he came out on stage from the middle of two temples, one for Zeus, and the other for his consort, Hera, to show that he is the product of their union, that he is the son of Zeus! And as Zeus/Jupiter was the anti-god, and that makes his son, Apollo in both cases, the anti-christ! So Obama, by identifying himself as the son of Zeus, is saying that he is the antichrist!

In Babylon it was Nimrod, who was the father, Semiramis the mother, and the product of their union was Tammuz. In Egypt it was Osiris, who was the father, Isis, the mother, and Horus the son. In Greece it was Zeus, who was the father, and Apollo the son. In Rome it was Jupiter, who was the father, Hera was the mother and Apollo their son. Sibyl's prophecy deals with a new breed of men coming down from the heaven, of heroes and gods intermingling. The heroes were the Nephilim and the gods were celestial beings. It was about the son of Jupiter returning to earth through mystical life given to him when the god Saturn/Satan returns to reign over the earth in a new pagan, golden age. When the world is in chaos this pagan Messiah will arrive on earth to rule it under Satan.

Christianity knows this man to be the antichrist, the final man of sin, who will be the son of Satan, the seed of the serpent. It is he who will bring “order out of chaos”. The chaos that Satan’s people created on earth. Word derivatives of apoleia are found in: 2 Thessalonians 2:3, “son of perdition”; Revelation 7:8, “go into perdition”; and in Revelation 9:11, “but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.”

Now we know from the reverse side of the Great Seal what is going to happen in the future, who is behind it, why America was set up by these men, etc., all of which was to bring about the rule of the pagan Messiah over the world, now we want to look at when they have planned for this to occur!

The first thing we want to notice is that it is a truncated pyramid, that is, it is missing its top. So the pyramid is incomplete telling us that it is looking forward to the day of its completion.

The second thing we want to notice is that the missing piece, the pyramidion, is hovering above it waiting to be finally fitted in place.

The third thing we want to notice is that the pyramid itself serves as a foundation, or a base, solely for the pyramidion.

The fourth thing we notice is that there is an eye in the pyramidion, the eye of Tammuz, Horus, and Apollo, revealing to us that the final stone that is laid is a living being.

The fifth thing we notice is that there are no eyes in the foundation stones of the pyramid, or any other concept that would denote it as living beings. This tells us that the foundations stones of the pyramid deal solely with government and organization and that the people setting up this world government are unimportant and can be replaced or eliminated. It’s a government built by Satan for his rule over the world, through his son, and people are totally unimportant!

The sixth thing we notice is that the angle of the pyramid is at the same angle of the pyramidion and that the angle of each level of the pyramid is the same all the way up. This also indicates that there must be the final course of government and its control in place before the pyramidion, Apollo the antichrist, can finally be placed in the position of his rule over the world; a perfect fit.

And as the pyramid represents government, that is, world government, then that tells us that a world government must be firmly in place first before the antichrist assumes his place as world-ruler. This scenario is already in place through the UN. The last nation to fall under its despotic control is the nation that set it up – the US, a business corporation. The current CEO of this corporation is also referred to as the president of the US.

So we have the world government in place brought about by the men of the Babylonian cult and once they have control over all nations and all people, where every living being is under international rule, the final row of the pyramid in place, (which occurred in 2009), then the antichrist will take over the rule of this government.

The seventh thing we notice, as mentioned before, is that the pyramid on our dollar bills has the steep angle of the pyramids found throughout meso-America and not the pyramid in Giza. The original drawing of the pyramid for the great Seal of the US, which was done in 1782, was the stepped pyramid from meso-America. What this tells us is that there is something to be found in meso-America that has bearing on all this.

The eighth thing we notice is that the pyramid has 13 courses in it. In fact we see that the number 13 is used all over the Great Seal! 13 olive branches, 13 stars and stripes, 13 letters in E Pluribus Unum, 13 stars, the eagle's head, which is the veiled mythical Phoenix which rose from the ashes alluding to Tammuz rising from the dead, 13 letters in Annuit Coeptis, 13 levels of the pyramid, 13 arrows, so the number 13 is significant in interpreting all this.

The original drawing of the Great Seal was done in 1782 and it was done in that year because of certain constellation alignments, and it was drawn as a stepped pyramid. The 100th year commemoration coin in 1882 was a stepped pyramid showing that the pyramid used on the Great Seal was the pyramids found over here in the meso-Americas, not the one in Giza.

The ninth thing we notice is that the first foundation stones, or course of stones, of this pyramid have the date 1776 on them to indicate the year that the work of this great undertaking began. America didn't actually become a nation until we had our constitution in September 17, 1787, ratified June 21, 1788. July 4, 1776 was when we declared our independence, but 1776 was the year that the masons began their great undertaking centered around Apollo.

The tenth thing we notice about the meso-American pyramid on our dollar bills is that there is no temple on top, like all those in meso-America where countless millions were slaughtered on their tops. A temple on top has been replaced by Horus coming down to earth to rule it; down to the masonic worldwide government that his followers established for him.

So we have to ask ourselves, why thirteen courses in the pyramid? Why not twelve the number of government and organization? Why not seven as some of the stepped pyramids (ziggurats) found in Iraq and Iran? Or why not ten steps, or courses, as other pyramids have to reflect the ten degrees of initiation used by masonry back then to become perfected? Some of the older stepped pyramids had seven steps, others had ten steps, each at a different degree or slope, and often each step was a different color. These steps were used to denote the initiate ascending into the deity of becoming a perfected man. Each level is a different degree in the masonic craft, as in Obama's inauguration.

So we have some questions. Why are their 13 levels in their pyramid? Does that speak of 13 measurements of time? Why did they choose the stepped pyramids of the Mayas and Aztecs? Why the year 1776? Is there any celestial significance? Are they measurements of time? Symbolically they have to be because there is the notation of the date 1776. Such as, (among many), the number 13 squared, $13 \times 13 = 169$, $169 + 1776 = 1945$, is the year that the UN was established and international government was now on America's shores.

Now because we have a Mayan pyramid and the date 1776 at its bottom to indicate the beginning of something, is it telling us that the Mayan calendar is to be used to reveal the date of Apollo's return? The Mayans used a measurement of time called a katun, which encompassed 19.7 years. In their long count calendar there are 13 of them, which end in the year 2012. The first katun began in the year 1776 and the last katun ends in 2012. A 20-year katun would bring us to the year 2016.

We have to emphasize here that this is their timetable as to when they say Apollo will return to earth to rule it. Now lest one say, and rightfully so, that 2012 has come and gone without anything happening at all! But not necessarily so! It very well may be that the antichrist, who is also known as Apollo, is already in place ruling the world from a position of political and military power! And that place would be none other than from the United States of America!

We do not know the day or hour of Christ's return to earth. The best we can do, as we get closer to it, is try to determine the times and seasons, and maybe the year and quarter. Now the forces of Satan operating here on earth have a timetable they are operating by for the year of Apollo's return to earth and that is the year 2012, but that doesn't mean he will return in 2012!

In God's calendar of his timetable there are certain days that are of significance: Passover, Feast of Firstfruits, Pentecost, Yom Kippur, Feast of trumpets, etc.. So one would expect to see these incorporated in some way concerning Christ's first and second coming. They were there in his first coming, thus establishing the principle of certain events occurring on significant days. In his first coming there were significant events, such as, his death on the cross, his resurrection, the Holy Spirit coming down to earth, all taking place on the four spring holy days. So one would expect to see that his second coming would occur on the three fall holy days.

The people of Satan have also had certain days of the year that were significant to them, among which are the summer solstice, June 21, the winter solstice, December 21, Lady Day – March 25, in honor of Cybele the mother of the pagan messiah, Dec. 25 – the birthday of Tammuz, Easter named after Ishtar the mother goddess, June 24 a festival to Tammuz, also called the Feast of the nativity of St. John.

Now if we take June 21, 2009 as the beginning of the antichrist's rule over the NWO, which could have happened without any of us knowing that this man was the antichrist, then 3 ½ years later we would end up on Dec. 21, 2012. This would mark the middle of the antichrist's reign, where Satan would empower him and then he would force the 666 numbering system on all people.

Many Christians believe that it will be around the middle of the tribulation that the antichrist will be empowered by Satan when he receives a fatal wound and is healed of it. “And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.” Revelation 13:14 It could be from a failed assassination attempt, where after he goes out on a vengeance to persecute those he thinks is responsible.

Now, if we take December 21, 2012 as the beginning of the antichrist's reign over the world, then we have June 21, 2016 as the middle of the Tribulation, with December 21, 2019 as the end. And if we cut short the Tribulation by going to a lunar calendar, we end up subtracting 100 odd days putting us around the Feast of Trumpets in September 2019.

Now secular history and various religious systems around the world have some interesting and similar events coming up in their calendars. The Mayan calendar heralds the return of the “serpent god”, Quetzalcoatl, in the year 2012. One of the oldest Chinese texts, “the Book of Changes”, or, “I Ching”, graphs out certain events over the years, but disappears into nothing in the year 2012, December 21 to be exact. A study was made for tracking and making stock market predictions and as called “the Wab Bot Project”, but it also predicted devastation for late December 2012. In 2006 NASA published a report on solar activity and over observing the sun's activity for the last 400 years it reported that the sun would be producing more heat than normal from 2012 onward.

In 1812-1822 members of the Cherokee tribe made some prophecies called the Rattlesnake Prophecies and said that the constellations Orion and Pleiades would war once again as in old. The rattlesnake constellation will have feathers on its head, its eyes will glow and in its hand will be a bowl of blood; its tail of 7 rattles will be the glowing and movement of Pleiades, and then the Pale One will come again and the calendar ended in 2012.

The Zohar is a collection of books of the Jewish Qabbalah written over 700 years ago and in a section covering “The signs heralding Mashiah, Messiah,” (theirs not ours), the year 2012 is set as the date for the appearing of their Jewish Messiah. It also talks about the year 2012 being the time when the kings of the earth are gathered in Rome and are killed by meteoric stones from the sky.

A Shiite prophecy states that before the return of the Mahdi, the end-times redeemer of Islam, “a tall black Moor will assume the reins of government in the West, who will command the strongest army on earth, and will bear a clear sign from the third Imam, Hussein, leaving no doubt that, “He is with us””. Barack with the ck ending means blessing, so Barack Hussein means the “blessing of Hussein”. In the Persian language Obama is three words, O Ba Ma, and that means, “He is with us”, which referred to the coming pagan world leader, or antichrist. He is also referred to as, “The One”.

But Barack also has the same sound as Baraq with the q ending; ck and q are both pronounced the same. But Baraq with the q means lightning! When the Lord said that he saw Satan falling from heaven, “And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.” Luke 10:18, it appears that he was giving us a clue. The name Barack Obama, when used with the q ending means Lightning, and Obama, and if used with the h at the end of Bamah, O Bamah, meant from heaven, or from the heights, and the heights referred to Satan's dwelling in the heavens.

The word inaugurate, as in the inauguration of our presidents, comes from the Latin, inauguratio, which describes the ancient ceremony by which the Augurs of Rome, (soothsayers), approved a king or ruler as being sanctioned by the gods to rule over Rome. Which tells us that all of America's presidents have been approved by Rome to rule America under Rome! This, plus hundreds of other things, shows that Washington, D.C. is the government under the Vatican's control making it the new Rome, or the Rome of the West.

Even its legal name, Washington, District of Columbia, and it is a business corporation, tells us that it is a business corporation named Washington and that it is a district of another business corporation named Columbia, which comes from the Latin word Columba, the word for dove. And the dove was the symbol, not for the Holy Spirit, but for the mother goddess of the Babylonian Mystery religion.

As one journeys inland from the Atlantic ocean, we have Virginia named for - the virgin Mary, (Mary from two words, from – the sea); then we have Maryland – for Mary's land; then on to Washington, DC, to the District of Columbia, the land which the records show was owned by the Pope! The US Capitol was named after the Capitoline hill where the temple of Jupiter was. It's a dome representing the belly/womb of the mother goddess, which dates back to ancient times. The Washington Monument is an obelisk, which represents the male phallus of Nimrod. And all this under the nose of Protestant Christians!

The Babylonian Mystery religion is not just a religious system, (which is its front), but a totally comprehensive system entailing: religion, economics, politics or government and a military. The economic side of it covers manufacturing, distribution, shipping, international banking, insurance, laws of commerce, the UCC, laws of the High Seas, birth certificates, social security numbers, etc.. The governmental side of it passes the laws necessary to insure participation in the system and the military side of it is to enforce compliance and expansion of the system worldwide. The governmental side is now under the rule of the United Nations. The Pope is at the top of it, or the “black” pope - the Jesuit General, and the Secretary-General is the political head of the UN.

Classes 5-8

We need to look at one of the aspects of the Babylonian system and how it impacts most people on earth and that's in the area of commerce. Not from the standpoint of how it trickles down to the local retail shopkeeper, who is a part of it, but at the "big boys" at the top. The Apostle John called them the merchants of the earth, emporos. "And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more." Revelations 18:11

The word emporos referred to those who dealt with, and were a part of, international commerce. They were not the small town retailer, nor were they some poor man or woman laboring in some town or village to make the item that the retailer sold in his shop. The emporoi were those who controlled the system of transportation, shipping, banking, finance, laws of commerce, courts of commerce, etc., that brought items that were manufactured or purchased in one country to another country.

They controlled the financing, banking, lines of credit, who got to join their club, transportation, etc., which today would be manufacturing, shipping, trucking, insurance, international law, free trade, etc.. They are the ones today who promote slave labor in one country, under one of their many business umbrellas, who turn out goods at extremely low prices, then ship the goods to another country to be sold at tremendous profits. Babylon is the system, whether you look at it from the whole, or at one part of it; it is all the Babylonian system. In fact, the whole world is one big business Corporation and the headquarters for that corporation is the Vatican!

What we see going on in America today and all around the world is not a free market economy, as they like to refer to themselves, but the very system mentioned in Revelation 18 of the merchants of the earth. At one time America protected its citizens from this, but now is its leading proponent. In fact, the "government" of America today is tyrannical against those Americans who resist this system.

But for the system to work there has to be a departure from the sound money of gold and silver to a worthless paper currency, so they can expand the supply of "money" and expand the debt. It takes more money to buy more things, so the international merchants can make more money. So the merchant, bankers loan more money to people at interest, so they can buy more things. So they are making money off the sale of things and off the interest of the money loaned to people so they can buy things!

Another interesting word in Revelation 18:11 is the word for merchandise, gamos. Actually the word gamos did not refer so much to the merchandise on a store's shelves, but primarily to the cargo carried aboard ships or boats. It also referred to the cargo on the backs of camels. So once again we see international shipping and distribution as one of the key features of Babylon.

Expansionism is another key feature of the Babylonian Economic System, not only of the public and private debt, and expansion of the money supply, but expansion of the people involved in it. Because it is a Ponzi scheme you have to keep bringing more and more people into it. Enticing people to want to buy their products by appealing to their lusts is one means of doing this. Enticing people to come into the system to make money by appealing to their greed is another way of doing this. Enticing people to come into the power structures of the system by appealing to their lust for power is another way to attract and keep people in the system. Enticing people to come into the system for the security it offers is another way of getting people in and keeping them. Getting them to go into debt is one means of ensuring people will stay in the system – they have to pay their bills. And another way of doing this is forcing more people outside the system into the system through military conquest of a nation. This is the main purpose for a military in the Babylonian system. A nation's police are there to force the people of that nation to get into the system and stay in it.

The script will go something like this: A nation will be labeled as a “bad guy”; the military will be brought in to conquer it; a puppet regime will be set up that will do Babylon’s bidding; the local resources are exploited to fuel Babylon’s factories and profit the conquerors; the conquered people are made slaves of the system, either by forced labor in the factories or farms, or by pushing them into personal debt, along with the new public debt forced on them to rebuild the infrastructure that Babylon destroyed in the war.

Another interesting term found in Revelation 18 is that one of the cargoes of Babylon’s economic system is the bodies and souls of men! “And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves (soma), and souls (psuche) of men.” Revelations 18:13

When Rome started going from a republic to an empire, as we have now become in America, it started becoming an expansionist nation to expand its markets worldwide, it expanded its supply of slave labor, as we now have in America, and its political, financial and military control over the entire earth. At the top of the empire were the emporoi, the merchants, and over all the empire was the emperor. It was said that at one time Rome had over 60 million slaves with even slaves owning slaves. One of the interesting things is that they didn’t refer to these slaves as people, men or women, or even human beings - but bodies, soma! They were cargoes, gamos, of bodies and souls. These bodies were bought and sold, traded like any other property having no rights only the privileges granted to them by the state or their masters.

Anyone familiar with slavery in America understands how the slaves were brought here from West Africa on slave ships telling us that Babylon’s economic system was alive and well right here in our own country. We see the international merchants, the emporoi, bringing their cargo, gamos, of bodies and souls to the new land, aboard ships, the shipping and distribution aspect of Babylon.

The same economic system of Babylon is still at work today only it has taken a slightly different form. Slavery is created in under-developed third world nations where people are forced to work for slave wages, slightly higher than the prison wages in America. These new slaves produce items that are transported by cargo ships using cargo containers, berthed at the docks, loaded aboard trucks and trains and distributed to the local retail shops, who sell the manufactured goods of foreign slaves.

Americans are beginning to fall into this category because their wages, (if they have a job at all), are below what they used to be, but inflation has driven things up over 300%! But beyond that, Americans have stopped being free men and women and are now slaves of the Babylonian system. One of the chief causes of that is that they have made themselves debt-slaves because they have gone into massive debt, credit card and otherwise, just so they can gratify their lusts. When we obey our lusts, they become our masters and we their slaves and Babylon is always there to provide you the money in loans to gratify your lusts. “Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?” Romans 6:16

Another way that Americans have become slaves of the Babylonian system is through participating in a social insurance network where every American's body, soma, became a dummy corporation, and their personal birth certificate registered the biological property. (The soul comes with the body). When a boy or girl is born, it is automatically born free, but when a birth certificate is issued and the parents sign it, then an artificial person was created existing for the purpose of law and commerce. It has no body; it has no real soul to save; it is an artificial person created for the purpose of law and commerce.

It is then given an identification number; assigned a commercial value, some say around 7 million dollars; and it is filed under the Department of Commerce in Washington, D.C. as collateral for the national debt. This fraud was perpetrated on the American people back in 1913 without their knowledge or consent under the Federal Reserve Act. The federal government was broke and needed to borrow money, so the scheme was developed whereby every American was assigned a value of $750,000, some say less, as collateral to borrow against. So a “straw man”, an artificial person, a dummy corporation was created that would be worth that amount of money to borrow against.

The birth certificates of these artificial persons are designated by using the upper case for the entire last name, as distinct from using the lower case for the last name with the first letter capitalized. These birth certificates are traded as collateral for the US government's Treasury bills. Many people have attained copied of the backsides of their birth certificates and found they have been stamped by various foreign governments. The greater the number of legal persons residing in a nation the greater amount of money that nation can borrow from the international bankers because there is more collateral.

But remember, one does not only have to pay off the debt, they have to pay the interest as well! So they need to borrow more money, but to have more money they have to have more collateral! And to have more collateral they have to have more bodies! Bodies that are artificial persons they can borrow against. So America needs more bodies coming into the country to service our massive debt, which explains all the immigration, legal and illegal. This is why the US government, (a business corporation itself), is doing little to nothing to stop immigration from coming into the nation. The more bodies there are, the more collateral they have to borrow money to service the national debt. Ten million artificial persons would mean around ten to seventy trillion dollars as collateral to borrow against!

We had seen that the merchants of the earth, emporoi, are those dealing in international commerce, or commerce on a large scale, not the smaller retail shops, the kapelos. They are those who control the system of manufacturing, transportation, shipping, distribution, banking, finance, insurance, laws, etc., that cover everything from the manufacturing of an item to final sales.

One of the aspects of getting their system in place, where they have total control over everything, is by getting rid of the smaller “mom and pop” stores to where everything has become big box retailers and franchises. This is accomplished by them coming into a town and wiping out all competition with their lower prices, which they are able to do that by using slave labor wages in underdeveloped nations.

We see this in America today. Take a look at how many automobile manufacturers there used to be, some say around 1,800, compared to how many there are today. How many gas stations there used to be compared to the present? Look at the hundreds and thousands of family farms there used to be down to a few agribusinesses. The clothing stores, retail stores, mom and pop hamburger stands, the multiplicity and variety of these things that made America great and the people free and independent have come down to a few mega-corporation businesses in each town.

The worldwide production and distribution of food is now controlled by six corporations! The reason for this is that the “merchants of the earth” have to have the total control over every aspect of goods, service and food production worldwide so they can implement their forced marking system, the mark of the beast, which is already here and soon to be forced on all people. This can only come about when there are only a few mega-corporations, which control everything, and all that under one corporation controlled by the anti-christ.

Now we get down to the mark of the beast. There are two concepts found in this: 1) the idea of compulsion or force, and 2) the idea of deception. Revelation 13:17 brings out the idea of compulsion, “And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” And Revelation 19:20 brings out the idea of deception, “And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.”

The idea of compulsion, where one is compelled to do something that they didn't want to do, introduces the concept of force, whether physical or some other kind. Force is used to bring about compliant action. In Revelation 13:17 we see that the compelling force behind people taking the mark of the beast is economic force! If they do not have the mark of the beast, then they will not be able to buy or sell anything! Which means they will be kept out of the market place altogether.

This act alone will force most people on earth to take the mark of the beast. Now they may try to sell the idea to people by selling them the benefits that come from that: security of bank accounts, lost children, ease of movement, etc., this gets into the deception idea, but it will probably start with a law requiring all “persons” to have a computer chip on their bodies, which will be backed up by the full power of a police state to enforce it. But the teeth of the law will be the economic pressure of not being able to buy or sell, which will impact the housing, transportation, food, clothing, medical help, etc., etc.

The question is how do they expect to implement it? There has been much speculation on this subject and probably some sound reasoning. The latest development is the mandatory health bill recently passed by a rogue government here in America, otherwise known as Obama care. This bill will be backed by the full power of a police state. This is the beginning of the mark of the beast scenario.

Researchers of the Obama care bill have hidden down in the many pages of the bill a provision that calls for the mandatory chipping of all persons with an RFID chip, which is to be put in place no later than January 2017! The alleged purpose of this chip will be to hold the medical data of the “person” and other data. Another deception.

Here's where the health care bill becomes a Trojan horse for the mark of the beast. All “persons” have to be included in the health care bill. If they don't, then the full force of the law will come down on them. The next phase is when they come out and say now you have to have this microchip attached to your body, if you want to stay in the program. If you don't, then you will be out of the health care program. This will come with the added force that you will no longer be able to get any health care at all from any doctor, or any hospital, but also you will not be able to buy or sell!

Now we get down to the matter of deception, as found in Revelations 19:20, “And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived (planao) them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.” You can be sure millions of people involved in “Christianity” will raise the question, is this the mark of the beast as mentioned in the Bible?

The mark of the beast won't be an issue for billions of people living on earth, (if there are that many left), who are involved in Buddhism, Hinduism, Judaism, Shintoism, liberalism, Islam, atheism, the new age movement, etc., to them it will be no big deal, and besides they have no scriptures pertaining to this matter.

But for over a billion people on earth, who nominally identify themselves as “Christian”, who are associated with the various churches identified as Christian: Romanism, the Russian Orthodox Church, the Greek Orthodox Church, Protestants and Evangelicals, and the thousands of various other Christian sects, it will be a big deal because it has been prophesied in the NT’s Book of Revelations!

They may not understand it; they may not know anything about it, but it is there and they will wonder if this Healthcare bill with its mandatory implanted RFID device is the mark of the beast! To allay their fears they are going to have to be told that it isn’t and they are going to have to be told by a reputable religious figure, whose stature they accept, that it isn’t! And this is where the pope comes in, who is the false prophet. There will be others, but he is the main one.

Now the pope is going to come out and say that neither the health care bill, nor the new international economic system, (NWO), have anything to do with the mark of the beast. (He’s already done this.) He may even try to explain away the references in Revelations as an allegory or some other concept. But remember! His role in all this is to get the people of earth to take the mark of the beast! “And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads.” Revelations 13:16

Economic coercion, not being able to buy or sell, is one means of getting people to take the mark of the beast, but so also is deception! “And deceiveth (planao) them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.” Revelation 13:14

The word to deceive is planao, which meant to lead someone astray from the truth, from the right path, to go into error, to go down the wrong path in life, and this is accomplished by the use of deception. But remember, it was these people who did not want the truth, so God sent them a spirit of delusion, planao. “And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:” 2 Thessalonians 2:11

The pope is the religious leader of Mystery Babylon; he is the religious representative of the antichrist, and he is the one known as the false prophet. He will be the one who will deceive people, including those who are associated with “Christianity”, into taking the mark of the beast. And the pre-trib rapture doctrine, which is from the Vatican’s army of the Jesuits, is one way of deceiving some people.

Remember in Revelations 13:11, “And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” the false prophet had two horns like a lamb, but spoke the words of the dragon, or Satan. He represents himself, and appears to many, to be the head of “Christianity” here on earth, but speaks the devil’s words.

We also need to remember that the mark of the beast, (genitive of reference), belongs to the antichrist; it is his “baby”, so to speak. It will be brought out about and enforced upon all under his rule. And if the Healthcare bill is a precursor to this, then the Healthcare bill is his “baby”! The antichrist can implement a health care bill in one country, with its mandatory RFID chip, become the Secretary-General of the UN, and then implement it worldwide! It is very possible, and becoming more likely each day, that the USA will be the country from which the antichrist comes in his rise to worldwide power and could very well end up with him becoming the secretary-general of the United Nations. And the oval office of the president of the USA fits that scenario quite well.

Aside from the fact that America has many fine Christians and freedom loving patriots in it, the masons and other occultists took our country over decades ago at the highest levels of government for the purpose of bringing about a world government and a world ruler! It was these people who established world government on our shores in 1945 from which to rule the world.

It is these men and their fellow craft-brothers worldwide, which will put in power the final man of sin to rule the world, and it is highly likely that it will begin in America first! The pope at that time, whoever he is, will place the full financial, economic, political, religious and psychological backing of the Vatican behind him. And remember, Washington DC is laid out as a mirror image of the Vatican. It was even known as the Rome of the West.

The pope will cause all the inhabitants of the earth to worship this antichrist, those who have taken his universal identification, economic, medical and personal data chip. The word for worship is proskuneo and it does have the element of what we think of as worship in it, but also obeisance! They have to obey the antichrist. There were three gestures that signified that an individual was in obeisance to a ruler: 1) to bow down and kiss his ring; 2) to kneel and kiss his feet; 3) to prostrate oneself on the floor before him. That's the idea of what proskuneo is really about.

All this will be implemented after the antichrist's recovery from an assassination attempt on his life, very likely by the military . “And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed (therapeuo): and all the world wondered after the beast.” Revelation 13:3 The word for healed here is therapeuo, from which we get therapy, tells us that he will die, but doctors, or occultists, will be able to save his life.

Drunkenness and Dissipation – Class seven

“And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.” Luke 21:34 - προσεχετε δε εαυτοις μηποτε βαρυνθωσιν υμων αι καρδιαι εν κραπαλη και μεθη και μεριμναις βιωτικαις και αιφνιδιος εφ υμας επιστη η ημερα εκεινη.

*“And take heed to yourselves”, prosechete de 'heautois, to take heed, or be careful, is the present active imperative of prosecho, which meant to turn one's mind to something, to be aware of something, to be alert about it, to apply oneself, to be concerned about, to occupy oneself with something. In the present active imperative it is a command that we are personally responsible to do and that we're to keep on doing it.*

To understand this we have to put it in its context of the end times. The years have gone by and evil men have grown worse and worse; internationalism has taken over the planet; freedom is gone; the Church has grown apostate; the love of most believers has grown cold; there is a noticeable void in the teaching of the Word of God; people are now characterized across the board as noted in 2 Timothy 3:1-5; “This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.”; the economic controls over everything; the New World Order; traitors and betrayers; the intensification of the angelic conflict as demons flood the world from the skies; the antichrist rising to power; the marking system of the beast; the fears and insecurity; and the spiritual oppression of it all.

And now, on top of all that, signs in the sun, moon and stars; the shaking of the heavenly bodies and all sorts of natural phenomena, earthquakes, etc., will be taking place. The words of the Lord are not to be taken lightly when he said that this will be the time of the greatest tribulation, pressure, that the world has ever seen. “For then shall be great tribulation, (thlipsis – pressure), “such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.” Matthew 24:21

It’s in this context when the Lord said to us, “And take heed to yourselves”. Every stabilizing concept that man has on earth: nature, government, the weather, people, family, Christianity, etc., will no longer be stable, but unstable to the point that insecurity and fear will dominate everything and everyone on earth – everything. “Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.” Hebrews 12:26

One can only imagine what it will be like living in those times, but we are already beginning to see it now! The assassination of our President in 1963; the Watt’s riots in 1964; the Vietnam War; the Hippie revolution, drugs; the breakup of the family unit; the Laodicean Church; loss of jobs because they were transferred overseas; massive debt; loss of freedom; a police state; the NWO; the constant state of war in our country; the weather; a nation immersed in drugs both legal and illegal; the absence of doctrinal teaching in churches; massive weather fluctuation, sinkholes, tornadoes, earthquakes, etc.. We are already beginning to experience these things and we’ve got to apply ourselves so we can remain living in the spiritual life dynamic.

“Lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting,” - mepote barunthosin humon hai kardiai en kraipale. “Or your hearts will be weighed down with dissipation” NIV. To be weighed down, or overcharged is the orist passive subjunctive of bareo, which referred to carrying a burden or anything that puts a burden on you. It speaks of having to deal with pressure and stress.

Life has always had its pressure. Finances, bills, our health, the job, family, nature, the weather, oppressive government are but a few of the things we have to bear, which make up our burden in life. But this is to be expected for Paul told us that we will have to go through many kinds of pressure before we enter into the kingdom of God. “Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation (pressure) enter into the kingdom of God.” Acts 14:22

In the last days all this will intensify with added pressure being put on our souls impacting the heart! The emotions will react to all this with constant fear, anxiety and anger. As Christ said in Luke 21:26, “Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.”, men will faint from terror apprehensive of what is coming on the earth. But for the believer, when these things begin to occur we need to be encouraged because we know that the Lord’s return is very near. “And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.” Luke 21:28

The two words dissipation and drunkenness, kraipale and methe, are used together here showing there is a connection between the two. Methe has been translated as drunkenness, while kraipale looked at the carousing, intoxication, hangover, nausea, dizziness and the squandering of one’s money. They translate kraipale as dissipation, so as not to state the obvious of being drunk, or stoned, and all that goes with it, but to show the wasting of one’s resources, and that’s not limited to just money, but one’s physical and spiritual resources.

But what are we really looking at here? Some only see the “wine, woman, song” idea, but what it’s talking about is people trying to cope with the phenomenal pressure of living in the last days! Instability is all around; the weather is crazy; earthquakes everywhere; people are out of control arrogant and narcissistic; governments become thuggish police states and all getting crazier by the day.

“And cares of this life,” - kai merimnais biotikais, and the anxieties of life. The word for life is biotikos and it refers to one’s life with a view towards the means of life, or maintaining one’s life. What are we going to eat? Where are we going to live? What shall we wear? What happens if we have a medical problem? Where are we going to come up with the money? What about our rent, our bills, food? Are the questions we ask ourselves all the time. These matters and more have been a constant pressure on God’s people ever since we have been here on earth, but will be greatly exacerbated by inflation, food problems, devaluation of one’s currency, oppressive government control and all the other things we see going on in the last days.

The word for cares is merimnos here to describe the believer’s state of mind about their ability to live and go on during those times and it will be one of anxiety. It’s hard for many believers today to cope with their lives without worrying by living in the faith rest life, but when the pressure keeps on increasing, then it will be even more difficult resulting in the potential for heightened anxiety.

The worries accompanying just getting by, making a living, keeping our lives together, etc., will drive many, as we say, to drink! But we know that alcohol is not the answer, even alcoholics know that. In fact, it can create more problems. But what is going on here in the end times is that many will turn to the bottle to cope with the pressure, so they can escape it, at least for a while. Some will turn it into an all day thing where they are drunk or buzzed most of the day.

So drunkenness and its resultant dissipation become stress coping devices to deal with pressure and the mounting insecurity of living in those days. But the solution for us is to stay in the Word, stay in the faith rest life, believe God’s promises, and apply the doctrines of prophecy we know to what’s going on around us in life.

Revelation 8:8,9, “And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.” say an interesting thing where 1/3 of the ships in the sea are destroyed. Coincidentally 1/3 of the living creatures in the sea die and 1/3 of the sea turned to blood. Now is this a coincidence, or a cause and effect scenario?

In Revelations 8:7, “The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.” it says that hail and fire mixed with blood were hurled to the earth and 1/3 of the earth was burned up, even the green grass. Was this coincidental, or did the hail and fire that were hurled to the earth cause the fires? A cause and effect.

By the way, according to Immanuel Velikovsky this is what one would expect to occur if the earth passed through the tail of a comet where our atmosphere would cause the igniting of the comet’s tail. On the same token, when the second angel sounded his trumpet a mountain, all ablaze, was thrown into the sea. This describes what the property of an asteroid would do upon entering our atmosphere where it would catch on fire.

So let's take a look at the sequence of events. The first angel sounded his trumpet, which caused hail and fire mixed with blood to fall upon the earth, which in turn caused 1/3 of the earth to catch on fire. As we can see this is cause and effect.

The second angel sounded his trumpet, which caused an asteroid or meteor to plummet through the atmosphere all ablaze landing in the ocean. The next thing we see is that 1/3 of the sea turned to blood, 1/3 of the creatures living in it died and 1/3 of the ships were destroyed.; another cause and effect. The 1/3 of the sea turned into "blood" because it was struck by a meteor or an asteroid. The 1/3 of the living creatures died because the sea was now "blood". And because of the establishing of the principle of cause and effect, then we have to conclude that it will be this "blood" that destroys 1/3 of the ships.

Now we have to look at this matter of "blood". Is it literal blood, or is the word "blood" used as a figure of speech for something else? Could it be that the water turns blood red in color as the result of a chemical reaction caused by a fiery asteroid or meteor impacting salt water. Or it could be salt water that has been contaminated by chemicals?

Now what's interesting here when it says that the ships were destroyed; it doesn't say that they were scuttled, blown apart, or overturned by a monster tsunami, but that they were destroyed using the word diaphtheiro, which is the intensive use of phtheiro. The normal word for destroy or to corrupt is phtheiro; it is used to denote a worsening condition where something begins in a healthy state, or sound condition, and progressively gets worse. Food spoils and gets rotten; wood rots and loses all structural stability; metal rusts and loses all its strength; and the end result for all this that it keeps on breaking down to its natural elements.

Moths corrupt or destroy good garments. "Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth." Luke 12:33 The outer man, the flesh, is corrupting or decaying. "For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day." 2 Corinthians 4:16 If they keep on corrupting, the moths will completely eat the garment; the metal will rust away to nothing; and the body will be consumed by worms and bacteria until it goes back to the soil.

But diaphtheiro is used here to denote a very intensive concept in this corruption or destruction. It is found in 1 Timothy 6:5, "Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself." to describe those believers, who have rejected the spiritual life dynamic of Bible Doctrine combined with faith, under the filling of the Holy Spirit, resulting in a complete deterioration of their minds down into mental illness and insanity.

What's interesting is that the word diaphtheiro is used here for the destroying of 1/3 of the ships, which indicates that these ships, both commercial and naval, will be destroyed as the result of a deteriorating process that consumes their steel hulls. Which indicates that there will be a chemical toxicity in the ocean that not only kills all marine life in 1/3 of the sea, (the rest will be spared in other sections of the world), and this toxicity will eat away the steel hulls of the ships in the affected area.

This indicates a decomposition of the steel hulls caused by chemical reaction causing the steel to separate into its basic elements. While a moth eats away at a garment, so do various chemicals eat away at metal causing it to separate. It's very similar to rust, only intensified. As to how this could happen we could have a meteorite hit in one part of the ocean, the ocean could be full of various chemicals due to the seepage from oil wells, resulting in a change in the nature of the ocean itself, then the currents would take this toxic soup to other areas contaminating 1/3 of the sea.

Perhaps in this case the word corrode would be a better translation because it has the idea of eating away by chemical action, only fast moving. The asteroid or meteor could be of an exotic material, which, when combined with the extreme heat and shock of the impact, plus salt water, and perhaps plus toxic chemicals present in the salt water, would produce a fast acting chemical that eats away at the ship's hulls.

Diaphtheiro is also used in two other places in Revelations 11:18, “And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldst destroy them which destroy the earth.”, which announces that God is now beginning to judge the earth and his wrath is upon the earth to destroy those who are destroying the earth.

The first usage of diaphtheiro is in the orist active infinitive, which shows that this tells us what his purpose is for doing this. And the second usage is in the present active participle, which tells us that the people of the world are in the process of destroying the entire earth, if one could imagine something of that magnitude. But they had not totally destroyed it yet, because the perfect tense is not used.

Diaphtheiro describes a process, whether it is chemical, organic, or biological, is not the issue, but a process by which something acts upon something else leaving it in a worsened condition thereby changing its original form and purpose. Here we see God's judgment directed at those who are destroying the earth. In the plural; it's directed at a certain group of individuals in mind, those who are destroying the earth – the Earth Destroyers.

We must remember that the earth is not ours to do with as we please! When God created it, he never transferred the title of the earth over to Adam, or to Abraham, or to anyone else except for one man, his son, Jesus Christ! The earth is God's and everything on it and that means he has the right to assign people to live in certain areas on the earth. He also has the right to tell men what they can and cannot do on the earth and to the earth! “And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:” Acts 17:26,27

This entails man living by a certain moral code of conduct in regard to man's interaction with his fellow man and a code of conduct in regards to the land and how he treats it. What this brings out is that man's relationship to the earth and everything on it is not one of ownership – but stewardship!

Now it says that men are destroying the earth. In the present participle it tells us that they are in the process of destroying the earth, but had not completely destroyed it yet, as a perfect participle would indicate if it were used. Now it doesn't say that they are burning it down, or blowing it up, or something along those lines, but destroying it by doing something to nature that alters its basic form and intent bringing it into a worsened state.

This obviously would include the use of chemicals, which not only harm the environment, but are actually killing it. This concept we can see going on everyday all around us; and it's getting worse! The pollution of smog from vehicles is all over the world; factories all over the world belch out toxic gas every second; the smog from China is now reaching across the Pacific Ocean to the West Coast of the US; and they're spraying toxic chemicals in our skies worldwide!

Toxic chemicals are being put into our drinking water; toxic chemicals leach into our drinking water; chemicals run off from our lawns, our farms, our factories, our forests, from roadside spraying, and all of that dumps into our rivers and oceans. Not to mention oil wells gushing their toxic discharge into the seas. Then there are the toxic chemicals sprayed into the lands of the world: the pesticides, fungicides, herbicides and more.

But there is a new player on the block that is now going much further in destroying the world and that is by genetically modifying the DNA of plants and animals! And you can't reason with the people who are doing this due to their hubris. Genetically modified plants, such as corn, and there are many others, are rapidly taking over the planet destroying all naturally growing plants resulting in these hybridized beast plants wiping out the naturally growing plants that God originally put here on earth.

When you take a certain seed and modify the DNA of that seed, then what you have done is create a new species of seed different from the one that was originally there and you have destroyed the old one. When the Bible says that they are destroying the earth, and the term the earth is a synecdoche and it refers to all life that is found on the earth.

So what this tells us that these Earth-Destroyers are those individuals who are in the process of destroying the entire planet by not only placing toxic chemicals into our air, land, water, and food chain, but also by genetically modifying plant life, animal life, and human life as well.

Now it says that God is going to destroy the Earth-Destroyers and he will do so by the process of diaphtheiro, the same word that we have been studying, which has the idea of physical decomposition, corrosion, corruption, etc.. But how could this be?

Zechariah describes a situation in the Day of the Lord, when the flesh of men, their eyes and tongues, will rot while standing on their feet; a process that would be similar to the idea of diaphtheiro. “And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.” Zechariah 14:12 The exact mechanics of this we do not know, but he will destroy those, who are destroying the earth, by means of a rapid working corruption of their bodies. Once again, the idea of reaping what you sow is brought out in how God deals with man.

Now some will say that the year 2012 has come and gone and nothing happened, but we need to review what 2012 was about. The Luciferians use the pyramid on the back of the dollar bill to denote the year when their plan to complete their takeover of the world and put their man, the antichrist, in power. It has 13 levels in the pyramid and each level corresponded to a period of time called a katun.

The first level, the first katun began in 1756 and ended in 1776; and the last level, the last katun, began in 1993 and ended in 2012, but that was using the short form 19.7 years as a katun! But there is a long form katun that uses the 20 year Gregorian cycle, which comes out with the first level, the first katun, beginning in 1756 and ending in 1776, but the last level, the last katun, begins in 1996 and ends in the year 2016! So we can see we are still within the time frame.

The year 1996 is of significance because if we take the year 4004 BC of when Adam was created and come forward 4,000 years to the birth of Christ in 4 BC, and then come forward 2,000 more years, then we end up in 1996 AD making a total of 6,000 years.

Classes 9-13

Revelations 18:4 tells us to come out of Babylon so we will not be partakers of her sins and receive none of her plagues. “And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.” She is also called a great city and a city of power. “Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.” Revelations 18:10

She is also called a city of immense wealth, which had made many wealthy on earth. “And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!” Revelations 18:16 “And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.” Revelations 18:19

It is this great city that made many rich. These were the merchant class, emporos, which refers to those involved international trade and business. This speaks of everything from ball bearings to hamburgers, from tennis shoes to corporate jets. It is banking, shipping, insurance, manufacturing, retail, distribution, etc.. “For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.” Revelations 18:3 “And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more.” Revelations 18:11

We also see that this city rules over the kings of the world. “And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.” Revelations 17:18 Which has reign over the kings of the world uses the word basileia, which denotes not a democracy, republic, or any of those forms of rule that we are familiar with, but the rule of royal power, a kingdom, the rule of a royal family, which tells us that those who will be ruling over the world during that time, (and is already present today), will be kings, those, probably in Europe, who are of royal descent, but there will be a royal family that rules over them and the world. Which also tells us that the antichrist will come from one of these ancient bloodlines and that he will be crowned as a king!

So we have some questions. What is this city? Where is it located? How do we come out of it? Is it a city that existed then, or will it be a city that exists in the future? And what does it mean to be a city? We know that it was referring to Rome in 96 AD, but will it still be referring to Rome at the end time, or another geographical site? Candidates for this city have been Rome, of course, Washington DC, and the city of London, but one glaring candidate for the end time is Jerusalem!

The standard approach in Christianity views this passage from strictly a religious standpoint interpreting it to mean come out of the Catholic Church, which is true and a given, but we need to factor the whole picture into our thinking, because Babylon was never just a religious system, but also a political and economic system. We need to realize that Babylon was and is a business posing as a religion to deceive the gullible masses.

The religious side of Babylon, which we refer to as the Catholic Church, has been called “the Holy See” ever since its beginning and it has been headquartered at its present location called the Vatican for centuries. But it was not known as the Vatican City for all those centuries because it did not exist as a city! It was only a religious system fronting for the business. It wasn’t until February 11, 1929, when the Pope and the prime minister of Italy, Benito Mussolini, signed the Lateran Treaty that the Vatican officially became a city!

Officially it is known as the “State of the City of the Vatican”. It is a city-state meaning that it is both a city and a sovereign nation having no outside governance this was accomplished by Mussolini when he set aside from Italy the land the city of the Vatican sits upon. It is in the geographical boundaries of Italy, but it is not a part of Italy! Just as Washington, DC is located within the boundaries of the united states of America, but it is not a part of the USA. And the same thing can be said for a financial district called the City of London, which is located within London City, but is not a part of London city. These are the three most powerful cities on earth.

Babylon, which is present day Rome, that is the Vatican, is an ecclesiastical institution, a governmental organization and a business corporation; and the Pope is the CEO of that corporation! So Babylon is a city, it has a geographical location, it is a religious institution, and it is also a business corporation that operates for the benefit of those royal families who control it behind the scenes.

When people think of a city, they usually think of buildings, streets, people and maybe a sign saying, “City Limits” and all that’s true. But what makes a city a city is that, first of all, it is a corporation, a legal structure whereby it becomes an artificial, legal body from the word corpus. Then there is a governing body that rules, controls and directs the corporation. Then there is its situs, which defines the geographical boundaries of the city corporation. There also has to be the governed, which are the people who are citizens of that corporation, who in turn also are legal, artificial bodies, or also known as persons, as versus natural individuals. The word citizen comes from cite – a city.

A city can also become a nation referred to as a city-state, where the city limits are the same as the nation’s boundaries, such as, the city and county of San Francisco. Citizens of a city-state, or a city corporation, are bound by the rules or by-laws of that city when residing inside the city geographical limits, but also outside the city limits regardless of where they reside in the world!

Now when it says that the great city, Babylon, rules over the kings of the earth, “And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.” Revelations 17:18; we have to understand that to do so there has to be a legal framework in place by which it does this; and the legal framework is through a city corporation. This tells us that the kings of the earth and the people of the world will be citizens of an international city corporation that transcends nation status and geographical borders; they will be artificial persons of a world corporation. It may shock many, but this has already happened.

We also see that this international corporation will already be in place with virtually all the world’s people in it and under its authority and power before the antichrist comes on the scene. “Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble.” Revelations 18:10-12 He will step in and take over the reins of control of this established corporation that rules the world. So he will be both the CEO of this corporation and a king ruling over the people.

There are four city corporations that fit this bill: 1) the State of the City of the Vatican in Italy; 2) the City of London in England; 3) the City of Washington, a District of Columbia (?); 4) Jerusalem, which is already an international city (corporation).

Now because the Vatican is a political institution, a business corporation, and a religious entity, and because its history predates the other three corporations, it becomes the prime candidate for the city corporation that rules the world. All it needs to do is move its headquarters from its present situs in Rome, Italy to Jerusalem, Israel.

So what legal instrument would bring the world's inhabitants under the control of an international, world dominating corporation? The answer is the UCC, the Uniform Commercial Code. The UCC dominates all trade on the face of the earth. There is not a nation, or its ports, or its leaders, or its people, or any business that is not governed by the UCC.

In Revelations 18:11 we see that the merchants of the earth will weep because no one buys their goods any more. These merchants are not the local shopkeepers, but the international corporations who do business on a worldwide scale. An item may be made here and sold in another country, or it may be made over seas and sold here; the companies that do that are the emporoi.

Every single person and corporation involved in the process of the manufacturing of a product to its distribution and sale are a part of this worldwide merchant class system, emporoi. And the only legal, commercial structure that fits this bill is the UCC. So Revelations 18:11 and related passages are talking about the UCC.

In Revelations 18:17-19 it tells us that these goods are transported from the merchants in one country to the merchants in another country by ships! Every shipping company, all sea captains, all the sailors, all the deckhands and everyone else who makes a living from the sea from the ports to the insurance companies are also under the UCC.

This also tells us that, because they are involved in international business transactions, they operate under the law of the high sea and not the law of the land. The law of the land would put these businesses under the jurisdiction of sovereign nations, but under the law of the high seas, or maritime law, they are put under admiralty jurisdiction.

It is the UCC that regulates all commerce in the world from the manufacturing of goods, where they are made at, to transportation, shipping, trucking, financing, insurance, every single aspect of them is under the UCC including the item itself – all commerce is under the UCC.

Now if they want to assign a number to that item, or place a bar code on it, they have every “legal right” to do so, under the jurisdiction of international law and the UCC. If they want to assign numbers to the plants that made the items, or anything else involved in the process, they have a “legal” right to do so because they are all under the UCC and its rules.

Now we come down to people having numbers assigned to them. If humans are under the UCC, (they already are), as everything else involved in commerce is, then they believe they have the “legal right” to assign numbers to them as well, or even place bar codes on people! Now “legal right” does not mean a right granted to them by God, but “legal right” under the provisions of the UCC.

As a matter of fact people already have numbers assigned to them at birth under the provisions of the UCC and that number is the Social Security number. The only thing they don't have is the number of the Beast encoded on a computer chip attached to their bodies. And that is coming very soon, some reports say it will be mandatory by the year 2017.

It's interesting that some of the cargo that is brought to the merchants of the world by ships is the bodies and souls of men. "And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise (gomos - cargo) any more: The merchandise (gomos - cargo) of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men." Revelations 18:11-13

Gomos was the word used for the lading on ships, or cargo; and we notice here that humans are not referred to as people, or even slaves, but cargo! A cargo of bodies with souls; and that's how people are thought of today by the merchants of the world – just cargo. It's just like the slaves of Africa who were brought over to our shores aboard ships. They were nothing more than cargo to be sold off the auction block. But in our passage here they are not referred to as slaves, which would be a sub-category of humans, but as a cargo of bodies, bodies that were to be sold to do a job.

So when we talk about Babylon, we're talking about a religious system and an economic system involving international law, maritime law, admiralty jurisdiction, (which was the reason why the Revolution began here in America), the UCC, international business, banking, insurance, a political system, a corporation, a city corporation, etc., all under Roman law, which is the laws of ancient Babylon. But above all the Roman Catholic Church (Babylon) is a business hiding behind religion.

From what I've been able to determine Americans were brought under the UCC jurisdiction by the Federal Reserve Act of 1913 to serve as collateral so that the federal government could borrow money. Birth certificates were issued for each child designating that child as an artificial person at law under the UCC to serve as collateral for the national debt and were assigned a number.

The legal term for these artificial persons is person from the Latin persona meaning a mask, as in contrast to a natural man or woman. Persons are not referred to as men and women, but males and females, because to them as cargo they are only male bodies and female bodies.

God separated the nations, "And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:" Acts 17:26,27, but the UCC of the City is the device that goes across those borders and has control over the people.

It's interesting that in Revelations 18:13, where it talks about Babylon trading in the humans as cargo, the idea of their souls is brought out here along with their bodies. It could be that, because Babylon owns the body the soul goes with it, or it could be because Satan became the owner of their souls as part of the package when he took over the world after Adam sinned against God. But we do know that regardless of which one applies, that in salvation Christ redeemed our souls no matter if we're slaves to another man or collateral for a debt.

Some have seen the parallel between human cargo and commerce of the high seas under maritime law. When ships transported their cargo across the seas and arrived at port, they were docked at their berth and then their cargo was unloaded and the docking master issued a berthing certificate to the captain and the port authorities were notified.

The pattern for human birth is the same. The mother, (the word Mary comes from – from the sea), is the vessel and when the baby is delivered, it comes down the birth canal thereby discharging, or unloading her cargo from the water; a birth certificate is issued by the doctor and the authorities are notified stating that a new artificial person account has been set up for commercial Babylon and then a number is assigned to it.

Now the Rome in those days brought in millions of slaves from around the conquered world, but they didn't refer to them as slaves, or men and women, or anything else that would give them a standing in law; they simply called them bodies, soma. I don't know if they were referred to as even having souls. But in these last days we see that apparently Babylon believes it has claim to the soul, as well as the body. This could be due to the people willingly taking the mark of the beast.

It probably goes back to the concept that Babylon is the system by which Satan rules the world and the people on this planet, which he has a claim of ownership to, to him are nothing more than bodies having souls. Satan is the ruler of this world having taken it over from Adam after Adam sinned against God. From that time on the entire human race became the slaves of Satan; and apparently this includes their souls, as well as their bodies; even at death their souls go down to a place he rules over – Hades!

But remember that in the atoning death of Jesus Christ on the cross he poured out his soul as the sacrifice for our souls! Soul for soul! A believer in Christ may be in prison; he may be a slave; he may be (and is) collateral for the national debt – but his soul is free! When Christ went down into Hades at his death there were all the souls of those who had died to which he preached his proclamation of victory. But Satan could not hold his soul in Hell because: 1) Christ had never sinned; 2) Christ did not have the genetic seed of the sin nature passed down from Adam; and 3) because Christ was never part of Satan's legal or religious system. So he "got out of jail" a free man, as we would say. Not only because he was totally innocent, but also because he was totally righteous!

This is where the legal term of being "in Christ", en to christo, comes in; it was a technical legal term (t.t.) meaning to be identified with Christ legally. "For as in Adam, en to Adam, all die, even so in Christ, en to christo, shall all be made alive.", 1 Corinthians 15:22 When anyone believes on Christ as their Savior the righteousness of Christ is imputed to them thereby legally identifying them with the righteousness of Christ and his legal standing before God.

Today the State of the City of the Vatican rules over the people of the world through the UCC and the people's acceptance of being classified as artificial persons. This is done through international treaties and through corporations. The corporation at the top of the pyramid is the City that rules the world, the Vatican with the Pope being its CEO.

Under the Vatican corporation there are many business corporations, many international business corporations, then many national business corporations, etc.. In the area of governments there are nation corporations, such as, in America it's the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Inc., and under it state and city corporations. The gold fringed American flag is its flag.

You will notice that in every nation on earth there is always a "police" force. The word for police comes from the Greek – polis, which is the word for city! So they really are "policy enforcers" for the city corporation. They are there to protect and serve the interests of the city corporation that they work for. Notice the word used for police in the various countries: Catalan – polisia; Denmark – politiet; France – police; Italy – polizia; Norway – politiet; Poland – policja; Spain – policia; etc., etc..

But even if a believer in Christ is a slave in Babylon's economic system, only his body is, because his soul has been redeemed by Christ. Many believers in the early Church were slaves in Rome/Babylon, but their souls were free in Christ. The problem in America today is one of deception. Americans think they are free, when in fact they aren't due to them being collateral for the national debt. Their legal status as artificial persons has made them slaves to the national debt.

Some have determined that the Vatican owns the Virginia Company, which owns the USA Company, (USA, Inc.), which also owns Washington, a District of Columbia. The word people states that a human being belongs to a Republic; the word citizen denotes that a human being belongs to a City; and that the word person denotes that a human being belongs to a corporation.

Revelations 18:3, "For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her; and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies." reveals to us that the kings of the earth, the various leaders of nations, have sold their countries out for wealth and power by going along with the UCC. It also reveals that the international corporations have become filthy rich by operating under Rome's UCC.

Revelations 18:11, "Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come." reveals to us that the Vatican is a city of power, ischura. Ischuo had the idea of having the wherewithal, money, strategy, tactics and all the rest involved in war to be able to prevail over one's enemies and conquer them. So what this tells us is that the Vatican is so powerful that it is able to conquer all the nations and bring them under its legal and commercial control.

Revelations 17:12,13, "*And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their power (dunamis – the force needed to rule) and strength (exousia - authority) unto the beast.*" tells us that the ten kings receive their authority to rule over the world, who will give it to the antichrist; the authority they have has been handed down to them by the Vatican.

Revelations 18:17-19, "For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city! And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate." reveals that international corporations and the maritime industry are directly connected to shipping, manufacturing in foreign countries, gold markets, jewelry, diamonds, textiles, lumber, ore, spices, food, olive oil, wheat, cattle, sheep, cars, etc.; and they also traffic in the bodies and souls of men.

Revelations 18:24, "And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." tells us that the political, religious, economic and legal system of Babylon has been behind the deaths of the saints, apostles, prophets and behind every war that has been on earth, including what is happening now! When people say that all wars are banker's wars – they are right! But behind the bankers is the Vatican! And America is the one, the military power, who is leading the Vatican's banks and corporations war against the people of the world for profit.

How they do this in America is by deceiving the people, which they do through their control of the press. To deceive is to give a false impression, so they can lead people astray down the path they want them to take, which is the wrong path. And it is the federal government that is deceiving the American people by lies and deception to follow a course of importing death, disease and destruction all around the world with the nation slaughtering hundreds of thousands of innocent people, just so the multinational corporations and the banks can make their trillions of dollars of profit! The war in the Middle East has bankrupted America with trillions of dollars of debt; slaughtered over a million people in Iraq alone; and broken the lives and bodies of thousands of service personnel.

We can be and are deceived by false teachers and prophets, but we won't be if we love the truth and want the truth. Eve was deceived by the craftiness of the serpent because she wanted power. We can deceive ourselves because of the indwelling sin nature and the lusts of the flesh. Money and what the world system has to offer deceives us into thinking they will bring us satisfaction, but they won't. Society, culture and religious tradition deceive us. The whole antichrist system is based upon deception. Sin deceives us. If Lucifer got control of the world and its people using deception in the beginning, then you can be sure he is still employing this tactic today.

At the end of the age people will be swept away by a spirit of delusion and the reason why is because they did not receive a love of the truth. “And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:” 2 Thessalonians 2:11,12 we see this going on all around us today, this spirit of delusion.

The Significance of Statues in Architecture

When the people of God in olden times came to different cities and towns, it was quite clear to them who the deities of these people were. In each city there would be a prominent architectural building (temple), which housed the statue (idol) of their deity. Whether Zeus in Greece, or Jupiter in Rome, Sin in Haran and Ur, Stur of the Chaldees, Saturn, etc..

That deity was not only the deity of the people, but more important it was the deity of that city (nation's) leaders and the government. In fact the government, commerce, education, family life, etc., of that city were all based upon and centered around the worship of that deity. So that deity, whom the statue represented, was identified with that town or city. So whenever you came into a strange town and saw a certain statue, then you would know that the people of that town worshipped a certain deity.

But over the centuries, or at least since the advent of Christianity, that distinction has been blurred, if not disappeared from public sight. It's still there, but not as obvious as it used to be. The large temples and idols are not there in public view as they once were, but they are still there only to the enlightened mind. For example, if a statue of a deity (idol) was on top of a building, then that meant everyone in that building was under its dominion. And this applied to businesses and governments as well. You could give that statue a different more acceptable name to fool the masses, but those who were enlightened knew whom the statue represented. If a statue of a deity (idol) was placed in a port, then it meant that everything that came in and went out of that port was under the rule of that deity.

The worship of Satan was conducted under the name of Zeus in Pergamum where his altar, temple and throne were, but they were all transported to Germany. So did the worship of Zeus stop simply because it took place a long time ago, or his temple was moved? And if it were still going on, then what sign would tell us that it was?

This is where we get into architecture and monuments and the secret societies, which are still conducting the worship of Satan/Zeus right before our eyes in virtually every town in America. The Rockefeller family had a statue of Zeus placed at Rockefeller Center. So who is their deity? The UN has a statue of Zeus in it. So who is the deity of the UN? So who is the deity that is running the UN and world government? Zeus/Satan! And if you want to know who is running the State you live in, and who is controlling the legislature of your State, then look up and see the statue (idol) on top of your Capitol building! And look up and see what demon deity controls the US Capitol.

Increased Solar Activity

“And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun (helios); and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.” Revelations 16:8,9

In God’s judgment on the earth and its people we have the fourth bowl, or vial judgment, which deals with the sun giving out more heat. “And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch (kaumatizo) men with fire (pur). And men were scorched (kaumatizo) with great heat (kauma), and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.” Revelations 16:8,9 Now we know that we are dealing with our sun because of the use of the word helios.

The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun and the sun was given power to scorch, kaumatizo, the men, or mankind, with or by fire, pur. To burn or to scorch is the aorist active infinitive of kaumatizo and the word for fire is pur. Now when we look at the phenomenon of fire there are three separate and distinct concepts found in it.

There is the fire itself – pur. Pur refers to the observable fire itself, the burning of something, and it covers the fire that a simple match would produce, or the fire of the sun, or the fire of the brightest star in the universe. It’s all fire – pur.

Another phenomenon of fire is covered by the word kauma. Kauma denotes the light fire produces, the heat it produces, and any and all other phenomena that fire produces, whether seen or unseen, known or unknown. Included in that would be solar radiation, solar storms, magnetic storms, etc..

The next phenomenon associated with fire is covered by the word kaio. Kaio looks at the effects or results of fire. So we’ll take a look at some examples of these three concepts. One is sitting around a campfire at night; the fire is its pur. It produces heat and light, that’s its kauma. One sees the light and feels the heat warming the body, that’s the results or effects of the fire – kaio. The ashes left over the next morning are the results of the fire; that’s its kaio also.

We are walking around in the daytime in the sun with our shirt off and are exposed to the sun. The sun has fire – pur, but it also produces light, heat and many other things, which are covered by the word – kauma. But if we stay out in it too long, then we might get a suntan, a sunburn, or heat stroke, which would be the effects or results, kaio, of the sun’s fire.

In our passage here we have three words pur – fire, kaumatizo – scorching, and kauma – scorched. So we’re dealing with our sun, its fire and the heat, light and other phenomena that it produces. The effects of the sun, kaio, are not mentioned in this passage. We see men blaspheming the name of God because of the sun’s heat, but that’s not as the result of what the sun is producing, but because of their own evil.

In verse 8 it says that the sun will scorch people by fire and the word for scorch is the aorist active infinite of kaumatizo. But remember kaumatizo refers not only to the light the fire of the sun produces, the heat it produces, but also all the other physical phenomena, such as the solar radiation, that it produces! We can't see heat and we can't feel light; we see light and feel heat, so we're dealing with something that people will feel and what they will be feeling is uncomfortable and painful. Yes the sun will be producing more heat, but it will also be producing more radiation!

Now the reason why we're going into detail on this matter is because the standard approach to this passage focuses only on the sun's heat, when we need to also be bringing in the idea that the sun will be producing more solar radiation and increased solar activity!

Studies have been made on this phenomenon and they have found out that the sun produces coronal mass ejections, light made up of the total frequency spectrum of electromagnetic radiation, heat that can be felt here on earth, ultraviolet ABC rays, infrared ABC rays, gamma rays, X rays, photons, and recently discovered unknown particles. So when it says that men will be scorched (kaumatizo) with great heat (kauma), it's telling us that this heat will include all the other concepts mentioned that the sun produces as well!

Now we have to look at the effects of all this solar radiation hitting the earth and those who dwell on the earth. Obviously there will be droughts causing a shortage of water to be had, which we are presently seeing here in America and around the world; crops drying up, livestock not having enough water to drink, water shortages, rationing, people lacking potable water. Revelations 6:6 indicates this worldwide water shortage, "And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine."

Studies on the effects of increased solar radiation (kaio) are known to effect human consciousness and the body. Solar flares effect: the stomach lining, all brain activity, equilibrium, human behavior and all psychophysical, (mental, emotional, physical) response. They can cause us to be nervous, anxious, worrisome, jittery, dizzy, shaky, irritable, lethargic, exhausted, have short term memory loss, heart palpitations, feel nauseous, queasy, have prolonged head pressure and headaches.

One study got into the area of our lower emotions are low frequency energy stored in our cells from past experiences and traumas that we have experienced and never processed – so they become stored as cellular memories. Photon energy is a much higher frequency energy that pulls up the lower emotional frequency so it can calibrate to the higher frequency...thus we find ourselves releasing these lower emotions of sadness and grief without knowing why, which may explain why we fell "weepy" at times. According to one article on www.bibliotecapleyades.net these spells will last for around 20 minutes and we will be left wondering where these feelings came out of the blue.

Many people are reporting, even in our area, that they are feeling agitated and uneasy, more so than normal, along with a marked increase in other symptoms: time and space are beginning to wobble even more erratically than before; we seem to lose track of time easily; we lose words when we are speaking; the day simply disappears; we are not sleeping well...again; there is lots of tossing and turning at night and many report unusual dreams; we feel huge energy surges in the body followed by energy drops; reports of nausea, body aches, pain and dizziness; many experiencing deep grief; some feel ungrounded like they're walking on water; others report that when they close their eyes at night the room starts to spin; inner ear issues; buzzing or ringing in the ears; throat and thyroid issues; cold feet; dryness of tongue. The author states that this is nothing to be afraid of just get extra rest and plenty of water, and that it is all related to the increased solar activity that is going on.

As to why all this is important goes back to God's bowl judgment on the earth where the sun will be giving out great kauma – heat! But, as we have seen, it's not just heat that the sun gives out, but X-rays, gamma rays and a whole host of other things, which will have an effect on our bodies – kaio! And these are some of the effects that impact our bodies and emotions that people have studied out. So as the heat intensifies, we can expect that these other concepts will as well.

Now it says in Revelations 16:9 that “men were scorched (kaumatizo) with great heat (kauma),” The word for heat here, kauma, is all the radiated energy that the sun produces, as we have seen, and it will be intensified during this time. But it is a culminative aorist tense telling us this this will be building up for a period of time, perhaps several years, where it gets to this level of intensity. We could very well be in this building up phase of this phenomenon concerning the sun.

The first bowl of God's wrath being poured out in judgment on the earth is poured out on the land on those who had taken the mark of the beast and worshipped his image. “And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.” Revelations 16:1,2 The boils on their skin appears to be a reaction from the computer chip.

The second bowl of judgment was poured out on the sea and it turned to blood killing everything in it. “And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.” Revelations 16:3

The third bowl of God's judgment was poured out on the rivers and springs turning them into blood. “And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.” Revelations 16:4

The fourth bowl judgment was poured out on the sun and it gave out tremendous heat, that is, solar radiation scorching those who live on the earth; and instead of glorifying God they cursed him. “And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.” Revelations 16:8,9

The fifth bowl judgment was poured out on the throne of the antichrist, (his kingdom), plunging it into darkness. “And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,” Revelations 16:10

The sixth bowl judgment was poured out on the Euphrates River causing it to dry up opening the way for the Kings of the East to come to the Battle of Armageddon. Three evil spirits that looked like frogs, (note the use of frogs on children's cartoon shows), one each from the dragon – the devil, the beast – the antichrist, and the false prophet – the pope. “And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.” Revelations 16:12

The seventh bowl judgment was poured out on the air and a great earthquake struck the earth so violently that the Great City split into three parts, the cities of the Gentile nations collapsed; mountains were leveled all around the earth and every island slipped into the sea, tidal waves and 100 pound hailstones. “And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.” Revelations 16:17

The Seals of God

The first seal in the Book of Revelations, the white horse, deals with the Tribulation and the rider on the white horse, the antichrist, going out to conquer the world, whom Obama identified himself with in his nomination for the presidency of the U.S., (actually the CEO of USA, Inc.). “And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.” Revelations 6:1,2

The second seal, the red horse, deals with the antichrist going out to conquer the world, which we are presently witnessing. This will be a military operation with a great slaughter of the innocents. It is presently being done, sad to say, by the US military. “And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take (the) peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.” Revelations 6:4

The third seal, the black horse, deals with a worldwide drought caused by natural disasters, man made disasters, even solar flares resulting in the loss of grass seed crops, such as wheat, barley, rye, etc., but not affecting olive trees and vineyards. “And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.” Revelations 6:5,6

The fourth seal, the pale horse named Death, refers to the tremendous numbers of deaths that will be caused worldwide due to: military action, lawlessness, men killing each other, breakdown of the world's infrastructures, roads, hospitals, bridges, shipping, water, sewage, diseases, plagues, pestilence, food shortages, no potable water, wild beasts, etc.. “And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.” Revelations 6:7,8

The word for pale here is chloros and it actually denoted the color of pale green. An interesting note is that millions observed the riots in Egypt around January or February of 2011 where there was a pale green horse with a rider on it galloping over the riots, and it then went up into the sky.

The fifth seal draws our attention up to heaven where a very unique scene is taking place. We now see a very special group of believers in Christ, who had been martyred during this time because of their faith in Jesus Christ and adherence to the Word of God. “And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.” Revelations 6:9-11

We notice that by the use of the perfect passive participle of sphazo with the definite article in the plural for the word slain tells us that we are looking at the souls of the ones who had been slain because of the Word of God and the testimony they had maintained while here on the earth.

We also notice that even though they had died they were still very much alive! We also notice where they are at; they are under the altar of God! The scale of this scene should not be overlooked by us as to the immensity of it all. This altar is of such immense size that countless millions of believers are standing there in a disembodied state. All of which is before the throne of God, which would tower over it. We are looking at the base of God's throne, which would have to be measured in miles.

If we placed believers ten feet apart in each rank and file we would end up with around 250,000 believers per square mile! This would give us 1 million believers in an area covering four square miles! But if there were 10 million believers martyred during this time, then we would end up with an area of 40 square miles. And if 100 million believers were martyred during this time, then this would cover an area of 400 square miles, or 20 miles by 20 miles! Can we not see the immensity of all this?

Under the altar tells us that these souls were covered by the blood of Jesus Christ who died for their sins and was raised from the dead. We see that they were calling out to God for vengeance on those who had taken their lives. We also see that God gave them white robes and told them to rest a little while until the rest of those who were to be martyred, as they were, was accomplished.

Classes 14 -

Luke 21 actually covers two events; one, the end of the Church Age when Christ returns to earth; and two, the destruction of the City of Jerusalem in 70 AD. Christ talks about Israel and Jerusalem in verses 12-24, and then he goes on to talk about the end of the age in verses 25-38.

In vs. 20,21 he tells the believers when they see Jerusalem being surrounded by enemies, which took place in 70 AD, the believers in Judea were to flee to the mountains and for those in the countryside not to go into the city. “And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.”

In Matthew's account in Matthew 24:16-18 the urgency is put so great that if you are on the roof patio of your home, you are not to even go down inside the home and get anything out of it! And if you're out in the field, you are not to go back to the house to get a coat! You're to run! “Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains: Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house: Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.”

We would call this “waiting to the last minute” by believer who did not believe this would happen to them, or in their time. But what about those believers who did believe the Lord about the coming destruction of Israel, which would take place some 40 years later?

Group A would be the last group of believers, who did not heed Christ's warning and they remained in the city even after Rome had cut down a forest to build a fence around Jerusalem with logs. They had their last warning by Rome and they heeded it and left the city led by their Pastor into the arms of the Roman soldiers, who spared their lives, but they ended up in slavery.

Group B was those believers who saw the soldiers surrounding the city to build a fence to enclose the city and immediately ran for their lives. If they were on the roofs of their houses, where they could see what was going on, they immediately left. If they were out in the fields when this was happening, they did not go back to town but ran for their lives, as the Lord instructed them to do in prophecy.

Group C believers were those who saw the Roman columns marching southward toward the city and knew that something was going on; they immediately took off for the hills. Where they ended up nobody knew, at least they were out of the zone of destruction.

Group D believers were those who saw the Roman soldiers coming into the country three years before; remembered the prophecy, put two and two together and got out. Or at least started making preparations to leave because they had more time to do so.

Group E believers were those who had left years before that because they saw the inevitable downturn of the country and knew that it would end up at some point in time as the Lord said. So they left to make lives for themselves elsewhere.

Now out of these five groups of believers we find varying levels of preparation. Group E made their decision to leave the country years before and settle in some other nation. They sold what they had, put their money together and became ex-pats long before any of this went down.

Group D believers were those living in the three year time period of 67AD to 70 AD and some of them would follow the same pattern of leaving to go to other nations, while others would be taking provisions up into the hills to wait for it to all settle down. Perhaps they figured that Rome was going to put down any insurrection and they could come back after things settled down, which wasn't the case.

Group C believers were those who saw the Roman army marching in force to Jerusalem; they knew that something big was about to happen and they would have the time to grab what they needed for immediate survival without long term preparations and take off.

Group B believers were the last ones to escape death, or slavery and took off when they saw the Roman army surrounding the city, but this group had no time to make any preparations, so they just took off.

Group A were the “too late” group; they're lives were spared, but they ended up in slavery. Josephus noted that no Christians were slaughtered by Rome in this matter, but some were taken into slavery at the very end of things.

Why did Group E leave so many years before? It was because of the persecutions and ostracism by the Jews living in Jerusalem; the whole thing became pointless and futile. Why spend your life trying to build a future for you and your family when it was never going to happen? Not to mention that the whole thing, at some point in the future, was going to end up in destruction!

Why did Group D hang around for so long? And why did they finally leave? They probably hung around because of money, jobs, family, home, property, farm, and all the normal things that tie people down to an area. But when they saw the soldiers coming into the land of Israel at the northern border, they knew it was all over so they left. But some may have had supplies up in the hills.

I imagine that some believers out of Groups C and D, possibly B, could have had a place already in mind in the hills, or elsewhere, where they could run to if things got bad.

And finally Group A stayed to the end either because they didn't believe the Lord, or were so wrapped up in the security and culture of the city that they didn't want to leave! While the other believers had a plan based on Doctrine and had made certain preparations, whether for short term or long term.

The House Of Israel

“But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” Matthew 10:6

I make mention of this because some translations have omitted the word House. They put it as go rather to the lost sheep of Israel. Now the House of Israel was the ten northern tribes that were sent off into captivity as the result of the Assyrian invasion of 722 BC. The accepted approach on this by evangelicals, charismatics and Pentecostals is that whatever survivors there were after the war were taken off into captivity and were never heard of again. They were assimilated into Assyrian society and were lost to history. But that isn't what happened.

The Greek is very clear both in Matthew 10:6, “But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” and Matthew 15:24, “But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” - εις τα προβατα τα απολωλοτα οικου ισραηλ – eis ta probata ta apololonta oikou Israel.

The Lord is very clear in this matter. These people, who were the remnants of the House of Israel, the descendants of the ten northern tribes, were not lost as to their racial identity and their national heritage that they were descendants of the ten northern tribes, nor were they lost as to where they were living as different groups in the Gentile world!

They were lost in the sense that they were no longer a part of God's plan concerning Israel at that time. They had lost their place as the people of God on the land that he had given them to live on as tenant farmers because of their disobedience and adherence to the mother goddess cult. Christ's instructions to his disciple as to not go first to the Gentiles, nor the Samaritans, but to the lost sheep of the House of Israel! As a shepherd would send out his workers to go out and find his lost sheep. The message to them would be – the Messiah is here!

And we also want to note that Christ knew who these remnants of the ten northern tribes were and he knew where they were living! And so did the disciples! When he commanded his disciples to go to the lost sheep of the House of Israel he had a specific people in mind living in specific areas! These were the remnants of the ancient House of Israel, descendants of the ten northern tribes. They were not lost as to their racial identity, or to where they were living!

They were lost in the sense of the analogy that he was giving at that time in his lesson. He told the disciples to not go first to the Gentiles, or to the Samaritans, but first go to the lost sheep of the House of Israel as a shepherd would send out his workers to go out and find his lost sheep! The message that the disciples were to bring to them is that - “The Messiah is here!” Which is what he told the Canaanite woman. “But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” Matthew 15:24

This is what the parable of the 100 sheep was about where the shepherd went out to find and retrieve that one sheep that had been lost. “What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.” Luke 15:4,6 Now if one sheep out of hundred was important to Christ, then how much more the entire House of Israel? Which would have been the majority of the nation of Israel at approximately 80%. “For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” Luke 19:10

The very first book in the NT was written by the Apostle James and was written to these ten tribes, plus the other two. “James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.” James 1:1 James knew who they were; they knew who they were; he knew they existed and he was writing to them.

Even the famed actor Richard Burton, who was a Welshman, when he was married to Elizabeth Taylor, got into many a heated arguments with her because she claimed she was a Jew now after she had converted to Judaism. He told her that he was more of Jew than she was because he had descended from the ancient Israelites, who had settled into the land centuries before Christ. The word Welsh was given to them because they were strangers or pilgrims in the land. Among them also were the Sassoon's and Phillips' who had descended from ancient Israel. Even one of Prince Charles titles is, “He is the Prince of all the Welsh people wherever they live on earth”.

The remnant of the House of Israel, after they were expelled from the land of Israel in 722 BC due to their idolatry and wickedness, after they were taken into the land of Assyria, migrated from there years later to northern Africa, India, Spain, Germany, Russia, the British Isles, France, even some reports as far as northern Japan.

The very first church established outside of Jerusalem was not in Rome, but Glastonbury in 38 AD. And when the Apostles took the Gospel that the Messiah had finally come to Israel, that he had been crucified, died, buried and rose again from the dead, there was a massive conversion by these descendants from the ancient House of Israel. Christ did not forget his lost sheep.

God may have banished the 10 northern tribes of the House of Israel from the land thus losing their national identity and place in the land because of their idolatry, but he did not forget them. In fact, many of their descendants made pilgrimages to the land later on to worship in the temple. And it was to these people that Christ sent his Apostles with the Gospel first.

Take heed to yourselves

One of the problems facing believers in the Last Days, with all the apostasy and craziness of people going on, along with natural and man-made disasters, is getting our eyes off the Lord and being overcome by anxiety and mind-numbing distractions. “And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.” Luke 21:34,35

The Lord tells us in this passage what we are to do to prevent that. He begins with the imperative mood of command of to be careful, which is the present active imperative of prosecho. In the active voice it tells us that this is the responsibility of every Christian to do this. The next thing, because it's in the present tense it tells us that this is something that we are to do constantly. So are commanded to keep on taking heed for ourselves.

Prosecho meant to turn one's mind to a matter, to pay close attention to something, to notice something, to occupy oneself with a matter, also to beware of something, to be devoted to a matter. What it has in mind is paying attention to and devoting ourselves to living in the spiritual life dynamic of faith in the Word and the filling of the Holy Spirit. To keep our eyes on the Lord by a daily occupation with Christ through his Word, prayer and the faith rest drill, especially in these Last Days.

The context of Luke 21:25-36 puts this in the latter part of the Last Days and we can expect to see such things as: signs in the sun, moon and stars, the people of the world will be in anguish and perplexity of the roaring and tossing of the sea; men will faint in their souls in terror fearful of what is happening to the earth; the heavenly bodies will be shaken; wars, nation against nation; people traveling to and fro (airplanes), the increase of knowledge (computers), believers in apostasy, believers turning against each other, believers betraying each other, false prophets, believers departing from the faith, the rise of Israel as a nation once again and the prophecy that Christ will return before that generation ends. A generation was 70 years, so if we take Israel becoming a nation in 1948 or 1949, then that means Christ's return will be no later than 2018 or 2019.

Now with all these things and more going on the overriding sense of urgency that all believers will have is what will happen to my family and me? How will we take care of ourselves? What will we eat? How will we survive?

Be careful, prosecho, is used in conjunction with mepote and bareo in the subjunctive mood, so we have, 'Be careful, or pay close attention to your spiritual life, or else your hearts will be weighed down'. Mepote is a negative particle used after verbs of fear, worry, or concern and is used to denote a negative consequence that results in anxiety over one's life, which is noted in this passage as getting into drunkenness and dissipation.

The real problems aren't dissipation and drunkenness; they are problems, but they are consequences of the real problem, which is anxiety over one's life. They come about as the result of not dealing with the reality of what's going on in life by the faith rest drill. These believers are not living in the spiritual life dynamic, so they turn to the mind-numbing distractions of the flesh to cope with the stress of the end times, when they should be living in the sphere of faith in the Lord.

So we need to take a look at what's going on at the end of the verse with the anxieties of life, merimnais biotikais, and note is in the plural telling us that there will be many things to be worrying about, if we let them get to us. The idea is not to! These things pertain to such things as: maintaining one's physical life, our body, our health, our finances and our families.

Now the root word for life here is bios and it deals with the duration of one's physical life here on earth and the maintenance of that physical life dealing with everything involved in that: food, water, shelter, clothes, security, protection, health, medical needs, etc.. And from that idea and included in that idea is one's livelihood doing what needs to be done to maintain all that.

Biotikais deals with that which pertains to my physical life and appropriating what is needed to maintain it. So this takes in the areas of the economy, one's job, finding work, making enough money to maintain one's physical existence, "keeping body and soul together" as we used to say, and has nothing to do with lusts, wealth and luxuries. It's the necessities of life.

But enter into the picture the many things that will be taking place in the last days: earthquakes, floods, volcanic eruptions, droughts, increasing solar activity, debasing of the currency, inflation, working harder for less money, things costing more, jobs transported overseas, rising taxes, rising cost of living, food costs going out of sight, radiation, tyrannical governments, the rise of the antichrist and all that connected with him, the coming RFID chip of the beast, which is due to be implemented here in America by 2017, etc., etc.; all of which will impact our biotikais and one can easily see how anxiety can be a problem! That's why it's so important to live the faith rest life to prevent it!

Anxiety has the ideas of the emotion of fear and the mind being drawn into different directions. It worries (thinks) about one thing after another without putting any of them to rest. It can be heightened by the sense of panic and desperation. It's thinking without faith as it desperately tries to think up some solution for one's problems.

The Lord tells us to be careful, to take heed, to pay close attention to living in the spiritual life dynamic that the Father has provided all of us lest we be weighed down by the anxieties of maintaining physical life, of trying to figure out how we're going to keep body and soul together.

To be weighed down is the aorist passive subjunctive of bareo, which referred to a weight or burden that one had to carry. This refers to the burdens that all of us have to carry in life to maintain our own physical existence here on earth, the things that are necessary, but also the burdens of personal responsibility, whether in the home, at work, or the military, where we are responsible for the people under us, which would include our families. We all have the responsibility of our own health as single people, but if we get married and have children, then we have added more responsibility to ourselves, thus adding to the burden we have to carry in life.

Even in the best of times and normal times carrying our burden has always been hard and that's why we're to "cast our burdens" on the Lord. But in the last days of the end times the difficulty factor will skyrocket, so we're going to have to really apply this to ourselves. But the Lord gets into the matter of drunkenness and dissipation here as the result of not living in the spiritual life dynamic. The word methe deals with the concept of drunkenness, while kraipale deals with the matter of squandering one's valuable resources as the result of being drunk! And that's not just the matter of money, but also one's personal inner strength of soul.

This is directed towards believers in Christ because it will be a problem many will get into in the last days due to not living in the faith rest life. Drunkenness is but one form of escapism and is a human activity people use to handle a situation that is getting rapidly out of control, as we see going on in America today. People resort to drugs, alcohol and many other forms of escapism because they can't handle what is going on in their lives.

When an individual's reality gets to the place where they can no longer handle it, and because they are not living the faith rest life in the filling of the Holy Spirit; they will turn to things that: deaden the senses, legal and illegal drugs or alcohol, or create an alternate reality in their minds, illegal drugs, or anything that will help them cope with their situation.

Alcohol is but one substance that people turn to and use to not only help deaden the pain of reality, at least for awhile, but it also creates a relaxed, pleasant mood. And it's legal! Drugs, both legal and illegal, are also used to accomplish the same things. People use marijuana, heroin, crack and legal drugs prescribed by a doctor to accomplish these things.

Many Christians today are involved in these things because they are not able to cope with the stress of life and their lives due to not living in the true spiritual life. Over half of Christians, even though they may not drink alcohol, are taking legal drugs prescribed by doctors to cope with insomnia, pain, stress, etc.. You can see them taking sedatives, tranquilizers, drugs for their nerves, even mood altering drugs. But there are other forms of escapism that people use to get their eyes off the reality of what's going on around them, things such as TV, music, entertainment, cell phones, sex, love interests, staying busy, anything and everything people can think of to divert their attention to the reality of the last days.

There will be natural disasters, such as volcanic activity, earthquakes, signs in the skies, changing weather patterns, droughts, etc.; but there will also be man-made disasters, such as toxic skies because of the chemtrails and smog, toxic water due to the use of chemicals, toxic food, living in a sea of RF energy caused by telecommunications, radiation poisoning such as in Fukushima, the NWO, etc..

But the Lord warned us about these days and the pitfalls that await all who live on the earth and commands us to be careful to not neglect living in the power of the spiritual life, so we won't get caught up in drunkenness and dissipation. And that's why we need to begin living in the spiritual life right now! We have to start now and get into the habit of living by faith each day, claiming the promises each day, confessing our sins as a practice when we do wrong, of praying each day, keeping our minds focused on the Word of God and not the things going on in the world. For this is the only way we are going to spiritually survive those times and keep our souls intact and stable!

Luke 21

In Matthew 24:1,2 “And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.” and Luke 21:5,6, “And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.” the Lord is telling the disciples about what lies ahead for the temple and how it will be destroyed, which was unthinkable to anyone.

In Matthew 24:3 the disciples came up to him afterward and asked him three questions. 1) when will this happen? 2) what will be the sign of his coming? And 3) and of the end of the age? “And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?”

Luke puts it as, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place? “And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?” Luke 21:7 So we have two things in view here; the nation of Israel and its temple, which was the heart of Israel, and the end of the age with Christ's return.

Concerning the end of the age and Christ's return to earth he begins to cover that in Luke 21:10,11: nation against nation, kingdom against kingdom, great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in different places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven. The word for fearful is phobetron, which denotes sights or events that cause terror.

But before he answers the question concerning all the frightful events that will accompany the end of the age, verses 12-24 are interjected to answer the question concerning when the temple will be destroyed, which occurred in 70 AD some 40 years later.

Then in verses 25-35 he goes on to explain the sign of his coming and of the end of the age. There will signs in the sun, moon and stars; people will be frightened and confused over the roaring and tossing of the sea; people will be terrified over the shaking of the heavenly bodies, such as meteors falling from the skies to earth, etc.. Then they will see Christ coming in a cloud with power and great glory, verses 25-28. Then he goes on to give them and us a time reference by using the fig tree, which was the symbol for the nation of Israel, verses 29-31.

He also tells them and us that this generation will not pass off the scene until all these things be fulfilled. “*Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.” Luke 21:32 What this tells us is that the end times, the signs in the heavens, earthquakes, etc., and also including the visible return of Christ to earth will all take place in the span of time encompassing Israel becoming a nation!

Most people think that Israel became a nation in 1948, but what really happened is that Israel partitioned the UN for the land in 1947, in 1948 the papers were sent back because of a boundary dispute, and then Israel was officially recognized as a nation in 1949. What this tells us is that, due to a generation being 70 years in duration, we have a time period that will go from the year 2017 at its earliest to the year 2019 at its latest before the return of Christ!

The Beast – Therion

There are 9 references to beasts in the NT using the word therion that should be taken in the literal sense of a wild beast in the field. But there are 30 references to beasts in the Book of Revelations using the word therion! One reference is to the beast that comes up out of the earth – the false prophet. “*And I beheld another beast (therion) coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.*” Revelations 13:11 Two references are to the beast that the woman rides. (Possible mother of the antichrist?) “So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.” Revelations 17:3,7 And the other 27 references are to the antichrist, the beast (therion) which comes up out of the sea!

If you wanted to designate a certain category of animals you would refer to them by the names given to them: horse, cow, sheep, dog, cat, etc.. When John was describing the living creatures that were surrounding the throne of God, he used the word zoon, (from which we get zoo), to simply say that they were living creatures. Revelations 4:6, “And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.” He then goes on to describe their characteristics that they had 6 wings, covered with eyes, etc.. “And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.” Revelations 4:7,8

He refers to these “angelic” creatures 17 times in the book of Revelations and in all 17 references he only uses the word zoon, which simply stated that they were living creatures, but nothing like he had ever seen before. And what is significant is that he never uses the word therion for them. But when he refers to the beast from the sea, the antichrist, and the beast from the earth, the false prophet, and the best the woman is riding on, in all 30 instances he never uses the word zoon – only therion!

Now this is very significant and to understand why we will need to see that there has been a change of the normal definition from denoting wild beasts of the earth to something else involving the Greek Mysteries because of the use of imagery and allegory found in Revelations. Therion is a word found in the Greek Mysteries, which are nothing more than the Greek version of the Babylonian Mystery religion, and it was used to denote a creature of the Greek Mysteries, that is, it referred to a deity of the Greek Mysteries!

Kronos had three sons and he gave each one of them their area of rule. Poseidon was given the seas of the world; Zeus was given the sky; and Hades to rule the underworld. The chief god of Greece was Poseidon the god of the sea. The Etruscans called him Nethune and the Romans called him Neptune. He was known as the god of the sea, the god of earthquakes, the shaker of the earth and the god of horses. Whenever Poseidon (Neptune) became angry with man he would create huge storms at sea, (typhoons), to hit the shoreline or cause floods inland. He would also hit the land with earthquakes to cause great devastation.

The deities of Greek mythology, or mysteries, were the Titans of old, who were half-human and half divine or celestial beings of the universe, who came about as the result, according to them, of these beings having sex with earthly women. They were also known as the Nephilim.

We notice in Revelation 13:1a that one beast that came up out of the sea, Poseidon or Neptune, “And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns,” But that in 13:11 the other beast came up out of the earth. “And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” So who could that be? It says that he came up - anabaino, out of the earth – ek tes ges; and the only place down inside the earth is Hades, so is this referring to the Greek deity Hades?

Many Christians take this idea of beast into a different direction than its original idea. They have it as sort of a wild beast, or things like that. When what therion actually referred to was one of not mythical creatures, but one of the deities of the Greek Mystery religion. These divinities were also referred to as gods, divinities, lesser gods and Titans.

All the paintings, carvings, sculptures and statues have Neptune coming up out of the sea, often riding a horse. There are bas-relief statues of Neptune outside the Library of Congress and the Supreme Court; a very clear statement of where the US government stands. So we can say that the beast that comes up out of the sea and the beast that comes up out of the earth are the deities of the Greek Mystery religion, whose representations in sculpture are found all over the world.

The Greeks and Romans regarded these deities as half-human and half-gods, sort of a human alien hybrid who is neither human nor alien. So what this tells us is that the antichrist and the false prophet will be one of these hybrids, or in other words, of Nephilim descent. This will not come about as the result of copulation, but from the DNA manipulation combined with an human egg.

We also know that the antichrist will be the son of Satan because he will be brought into existence as the result of Satan's DNA as per the prophecy of Genesis 3:15, “And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.” God had his Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, by means of the Holy Spirit producing an holy seed, (which seed contains the DNA), into the egg of the Virgin Mary; the child grew in the womb and Mary gave birth the normal way.

And so Satan will cause a woman chosen from earth to bear his child. But because he does not possess the power that God does, he will have to bring this about as the result of some type of DNA manipulation producing an unholy seed in the woman. This man – a therion, will be chosen to rule the world as its king and the kings of the earth will give him the authority to do that. It will be after his first 3 ½ years of reign that he will die probably as the result of an assassination attempt by the military; the doctors will save his life, and it will be then Satan will indwell him and energize him.

Deluding Influence

In the last days we will see a phenomenon sweeping the world called a deluding influence. “And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:” 2 Thessalonians 2:11 The NIV has it as a “powerful delusion”. The Greek has it as, ενεργειαν πλανης, or energeian planes. Now the word planes meant to lead someone astray from truth into further error, but the Greeks held that the word energeian actually referred to one of these Cosmic Powers! So one of these Cosmic Powers will be sent to earth to deceive people and lead them astray. And remember, one has to deceive someone first before they can be led astray into error.

But there’s something that takes place before that, which becomes the basis for this deluding influence to be sent to the world – America included! And it’s found in the passage as they did not love the truth, or they did not welcome the truth! Long before people began believing the lie they had got to the place where they did not want the truth!

This was already demonstrated back in the OT with Ahab, who did not want the truth. One needs to read the whole chapter, but we will pick up the dialogue between God and one of these lying spirits in 1 Kings 22:19-23, “And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner. And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so. Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.”

The word for welcome in 2 Thessalonians 2:10, “And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.” is the aorist tense of dechomai – to receive or welcome, which sums up their negativity to the truth of God's Word and it looks at it at a point in time. There have always been points in time where people are negative to the truth and some are positive, but here we have a wholesale phenomenon worldwide of people being negative to biblical truth!

Which begs the question of are there any social influences, or other concepts such as technological influences that play a part in so many being negative? There are three ways that one can arrive at the truth: empiricism by using one or more of the five senses; rationalism by using logic and the reasoning process of the mind, which would use observation and the other four senses; and pisticism by simply using faith!

But even if one did not opt to choose to exercise faith in what the Word of God says, what about logic, reason and sound deducing principles to arrive at what's true? But we have millions in America who will not believe what they are seeing with their eyes let alone use sound principles of logic! The 666 number was prophesied almost two thousand years ago and here it is being used everywhere and these people will not accept this as being a prophecy from God pinpointing where we are at the end of time! They accept what the government and TV tell them regardless of personal logic or observation.

The twin towers collapsed before their very eyes on their own footprint, which is impossible apart from a controlled demolition. But because the government said it did they believe it! Forget logic, science, the testimony of experts, common sense and the laws of physics – they refuse to believe the truth!

And when Building Seven collapsed on its own footprint without any planes hitting it, their minds freeze up! Why? Because that would introduce logic and truth and sound science principles and they threw out logic a long time ago. I guess Building Seven collapsed out of sympathy for the other two! And when they believe the lie that an airplane hit the Pentagon and not a cruise missile, and this “airplane” with a fiberglass radome at its front punched through five, (some say seven), high-test steel reinforced two foot thick concrete walls leaving a neat circular hole, but the wings and massive jet engines didn’t even scratch the paint; they will believe that lie and not the truth! No bodies, no chairs, no people, some say they mysteriously showed up at an Air Force base a hundred miles away, no wings, no tail section, no nothing. It all magically vaporized! But not until it went through 10–14 feet of steel reinforced concrete, then it vaporized.

There has been a disconnect in the minds of the American people and something has caused it; probably due to the brainwashing of people by the federal government and the medium of TV. Maybe it's because they are gullible; maybe it's because they don't want the truth! Even in the staged Osama bin Laden event, they say, “we got him”, but no retinal eye scan, no autopsy, no DNA; it’s just, “we got him”; “we killed him”; and “we buried him at sea”. Just take our word for it; we’re your leaders, and the crowd dances in the street.

We can go on and talk about the lies after lies the federal government is passing off to the American people through its propaganda machine of main street TV, but the problem is why do so many millions of people accept anything and everything that the government says without any tested, legal evidence? The reason why is that the majority of the people in this country, Christians included, don’t want the truth! Just like the lyrics of a song, “Tell me lies, sweet little lies”!

This is certainly brought out by the countless churches in America who have turned from the truth. If the pulpits of America are not interested in the truth, then what does this say about the rest of the country? If those who call themselves Christians are not interested in the truth, then what does this say about the rest of the people?

The point of all this is that there is a nationwide phenomenon taking place where the majority of the people no longer want the truth! And if that is the case, and it is, then God has something in store for them; he will send them a deluding influence, which will take over and control our country from its leaders to the people on the street; taking them further away from the truth, away from any objective thinking whereby they could arrive at truth to the place where they will believe the lie! Even believers are being deceived in this.

The little horn’s war against Christians: Judgment In Our Favor.

“I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.” Daniel 7:21,22

הַזֶּה הַקּוֹרְנִית--וְקָרְנָא דְכֹן, עֲבָדָא קָרַב עִם-קַדְיִישׁוֹן; וַיִּכְלָהּ, לְהֵן.

This passage is very similar to the one found in Revelation 13:7, “And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.” - και εδοθη αυτω πολεμον ποιησαι μετα των αγιων και νικησαι αυτους και εδοθη αυτω εξουσια επι πασαν φυλην και γλωσσαν και εθνος.

But we want to go through the Hebrew passage first and the first expression we come up to is, “I beheld,” - chazeh hawayth, chazah is the peal active participle of chazah. Now the normal word for seeing in the Hebrew is ra'ah, but here we have used chazah, a loanword from the Aramaic. So the question is why? What led to the introduction of this loanword and with what meaning was it used?

Chazon was the word used for an event where Yahweh presented to a seer or prophet something they would see and it was often accompanied with words. These chazon were clearly distinguished from normal dreams and usually took place only at night while one was in a deep sleep. They were the means by which Yahweh communicated to the nabi, the prophets, where they would perceive with their mind's eye, while in a deep sleep, what Yahweh wanted them to know.

The Aramaic idea behind chazah was that it was a technical term for a particular nocturnal experience that took place in a deep sleep, (whether the eyes were open or closed was not an issue), where a picture of some scene was placed before the mind's eye, and it would be accompanied with or without words. The scene the seer was watching could be: 1), an exact representation of what Yahweh wanted him to know, 2), or it could be put in a symbolic or allegorical sense representing the idea behind it, 3) and it could be accompanied with or without words.

Isaiah, Jeremiah, Nathan, Habakkuk, Amos, Daniel and others were some of the men who had received chazon from Yahweh. Sometimes they were called seers because they saw things that Yahweh was showing them while they were sleeping at night. Amos was referred to as both a seer and a prophet. “Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:” Amos 7:12

The expression, “dreaming dreams”, that so many use is really somewhat misleading because a chazon was not just an ordinary dream. It was the means by which Yahweh communicated to his prophets regarding something that he was going to do, or something that was going to take place in the future. “Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.” Psalm 89:19 They came only to those he had chosen, they were accompanied by a deep sleep and sometimes they were associated with emotional agitation.

The peal stem tells us that this was a very intense experience for Daniel. Having a chazon from the Lord itself was a very intense experience, for that what is what distinguished it from ordinary dreams, but by using the peal stem we find that this chazon, concerning the antichrist and the people of God in the end times, was at a level above other *chazons. The participial form of this tells us that he was visually observing all what was going on.

Daniel 7 deals with the visions Daniel had while he was asleep and the KJV uses the word vision for chazah, which is an experience in which a personage, thing, or event appears vividly or credibly to the mind, although not actually present, often under the influence of a divine or other agency. Now while Daniel was looking at this vision from God, his eyes went to this one particular thing, this little horn. “I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.” Daniel 7:8 It is this same horn that is waging war against the saints and defeating them.

This little horn refers back to the boasting horn of Daniel 7:8 and is a reference to the final antichrist. He is symbolized as a horn because of his political power as the world ruler, (the horn symbolized power), and due to his connection to Nimrod, the first ruler of the Babylonian system, who was also called the “Horned One”.

Now Babylon had a political ruler and it had a religious ruler. The first political ruler of Mystery Babylon was Nimrod, who was the son of Cush, and Cush was the first religious ruler of Mystery Babylon. Temple banking, a fierce military, currency, system of laws, etc., all operated under these two rulers. Today we have the same setup with the Pope being the religious ruler of Babylon, while the final antichrist will be the end time political ruler of Babylon. Temple banking remains the same, a fierce military to insure Babylon's rule is in place presently using the US military, fiat currency, a system of laws coming from the UN, and economic laws coming from the Uniform Commercial Code.

Presently, the temporal political ruler of Babylon, (until the man of sin comes on the scene to take the power and authority to rule over the world from Jerusalem), is the Secretary-General of the UN; he was vested with this rule back in 1962 by the Pope, who handed over to him the scepter of world rule. Remember, the Pope believes that he has rule over the political sphere, the spiritual sphere and over heaven itself; hence, the Triple Crown.

“And the same horn made war with the saints,” - weqarna dikken 'abda qerab 'im-qaddiyshiyin.

“As I watched, this horn was waging war against the holy people and defeating them,” NIV To wage war is the peal active participle of ‘abad. The peal stem denotes the terrible intensity of this action as the antichrist, with the full support of the Pope at Rome, both of whom will be operating under the power and direction of Satan, who will be waging war against the saints of God.

This making war against the saints is polemon in the Septuagint translation. And in the Greek of the Revelation 13:7 passage, “And it was given unto him to make war with the saints,” it has the same word polemon used again. Now ‘abad was a military term used for war and the destruction it brought upon people, but warfare was not to be restricted to the clash of arms on the battlefield, but is waged against the economy of a nation, its infrastructure, roads, bridges, water supplies, food supply, electricity, waste treatment, communications; against the nation's social order, its culture and values, its thinking and schools, against its political process and against its religion. So war is an attack on all the concepts associated with a people.

Revelation 13:7, “And it was given (didomi - granted the authority and the power), unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power (exousia - authority) was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations, (all people on earth).” To be given is the aorist passive infinitive of didomi - to be granted something, to be granted the authority to exercise power in certain areas, which are outlined here in the passage is to make war against the saints, believers in Jesus Christ, and to rule over all the people on earth.

We have a culminative aorist being used here, which looks at the action in its entirety as a whole, (authority being granted to him), with emphasis on the results of that authority given to him. The passive voice tells us that someone, something, some group gave him the authority and power to do what is described next and that is to wage war against the saints of God. The culminative aorist looks at authority being granted to him at a point in time and the results of that authority being given to him; the results are he wages war against the saints.

And to overcome them is the aorist active infinitive of nikao, to gain the victory over, or to defeat.

Here we have a constantive aorist, which looks at the action as a whole in one point in time. That is to say, that now we are looking at an overall picture of this war against the people of God. But one thing stands out clearly...and that is there is no permanence of the action. That is to say, he is defeating them, he is winning the battle so far, but they are not defeated! They are not conquered!

There is a difference between looking at a war that is ongoing and the outcome of that war! In WWII the Japanese had the upper hand for quite awhile, and it went on like that for a while, but the tide was eventually turned and we won the war! The antichrist will be waging war against the people of God on earth and he will be defeating them. But there is going to come a point in time during this war, something big is going to happen during this time and all that will change!!

Now in our Daniel 7:21 passage, “I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;” both making war and prevailing against them are in the peal participle, which not only denotes the intensity of both actions, but also the uninterrupted activity in both of them. Which is to say, that this making war against the saints was an ongoing thing, and so was defeating them.

“And the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;” - weyakhlah lehon. The NIV has it as, “and defeating them,” To prevail is the peal active participle of yakal. Now the KJV has it as prevailed against them, which has the past sense idea in that they have been defeated. But the participial form in the Hebrew, which denotes an ongoing activity, tells us that this is not a “done deal”. That is, they are in the process of losing the war, but they have not been defeated!

Yakal meant to be superior, to be victorious over, but as we have seen because of the peal participle, that this was an ongoing, uninterrupted activity. The little horn, (the end time antichrist), will be in the process of making war against the saints of God, and he will be in the process of being victorious over them, but this will come to a halt!!

The word for the saints, (holy people in the NIV), is qaddiyshiyin the plural of qaddosh. The Septuagint translates this as hagios and so does the Revelation passage - holy ones. There are two views on where qaddosh came from. 1) to burn with fire, such as, the burnt offering. 2) something separated from something else, therefore, isolated, different than its surroundings, clean, pure, separated from the common and profane. And whether in the NT or OT there is only one way to become a saint, to be holy and pure, and that is through faith in Jesus Christ! So these are Christians!

B. God judges for his people.

“Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.” Daniel 7:22

עַד דֵּי-אַתָּה, עַתִּיק יוֹמֵיָא, וְדִינָא יְהֵב, לְקַדִּישֵׁי עֲלִיוֹנִין; וְזִמְנָא מְטָה, וּמְלָכוּתָא הִקְסִנוּ קַדִּישֵׁין .

This verse begins with a very little word that has a very big significance! The antichrist has been waging war against the holy ones of God and he has been defeating them. And then we have the word until written in this verse!

Now the Septuagint translation of this passage in the OT uses the word heos for until. Heos is a temporal conjunction that denotes the end of a period of time. What this is saying is that for a period of time the antichrist has been waging war against the saints of God and defeating them, until something else takes place and all that changes!

In the Hebrew it's 'ad diy-athah; "until came the Ancient of days". The noun 'ad denotes a continuing period of unbroken time. Used with diy it tells us that something is going on for a period of time, and then something else is going to happen to interrupt that. Diy is used in construct with athah, the peal preterite of athah telling us that that it is the coming of Yahweh that stops the defeat of the saints of God. And athah should be translated as came, as we have it here.

Now the question is, came where, to what place? One possible interpretation is to the earth. And some might hold to that idea. But because of context, where we have thrones being set up, thrones being used for ruling and judging, plus the use of the word judgment also in context, we have the idea that this is referring to Yahweh coming to take his seat on his throne of judgment and now rendering a judgment in favor of the saints. "I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire." Daniel 7:9

"Was given to the saints of the most High;" - yehib leqaddiyshay elyonin. To give is the peal participle of yahab, which meant to give, or to grant. It is translated in the Greek as didomi, which also meant to give, or to grant. The letter le is attached to the word qaddiyshiyn, the word for holy ones, or saints, and le gives us the direction of the action of the verb. It denotes motion and action toward something or someone. So the judgment of God is in this matter, which way does it go? Well it goes toward, that is, in favor of the holy ones.

Saints of the most High is the holy ones [belonging to] Elyonin, or as translated into the English, the most High. Judgment was granted in favor of the holy ones belonging to Elyonin. Elyonin is the word for the supreme being of the universe and refers to God the Father. Taking the root idea of power found in the word for God or deity, El, then with El- Elyon we have El, the Powerful One; the Highest Powerful One, or El, who holds the highest position in the universe.

So, if there is as rendering of judgment in favor of the saints, and if God deals with his creation based upon his righteousness and justice, then logic would imply that there could have been a rendering of judgment that was not in favor of the saints that preceded this judgment! And if that was the case, then what was it about the action of the saints that would have brought that about?

Now if we go back through history to the very beginning, the thing that brought about judgment on God's people was their apostasy! Adam and Eve were cast forth from the garden because they did not adhere in faith obedience to the simple command of God. The antediluvian age was brought to a close because of the rebellion of the people. The northern tribes of Israel were judged by God in 722 BC, because they turned from the Word of God and went into the apostasy of the Baal cult. The two remaining tribes were judged by God in 586 BC for the same reason.

So, it would stand to reason that, since every age of man of man's time on the earth ended in apostasy, and were consequently judged by God, then it would stand to reason that the Church Age would be no different! So, does the Word have anything to say about this? Yes it does, for the Apostle Paul tells us that the Church will become apostate before the return of Christ to earth! "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;" 2 Thessalonians 2:3

Now a recent theory brought forth by those in pretribulation dispensationalism to prove that the Church is raptured before the antichrist comes on the scene is that the term "falling away" - (apostasia)" in 2 Thessalonians 2:3, "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;" refers to the rapture of the Church!

But Paul begins his passage, which is dealing with the Lord's return to earth, the resurrection of the dead and our being "raptured", (actually snatched up by the angels), in 2 Thessalonians 2:1, "Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him," The coming of the Lord is parousia, which denotes his presence here on the earth. And our being gathered together unto him, (accomplished by his angels), is episunagoge, "And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other." Matthew 24:31

The problem with their theory is that it is illogical! They are referring to apostasia as the "rapture" of the Church, (so they can defend their pretribulation theory), but Paul already covers the "rapture" of the Church, if you will, in verse one! So what they are saying, even if they can't see it, is that the "rapture" of the Church will not occur until the "rapture" of the Church takes place first! Doesn't make sense.

Now aside from that every place in the NT and the OT as well, the concept of apostasy always refers to a departure from the people of God with their walk with God. For there to be a falling away there first has to be a position, relationship, or walk with God that existed, from which the believer departs. In the NT our walk with God consists of living in the spiritual life dynamic, living in the new nature, living in the filling of the Holy Spirit, living by faith, faith in the Father, faith in the word and promises of God, separating ourselves from the things of the world system; things along those lines. But when the believer departs from that to follow after the things of the world, to go after money, to go after their lusts, when the believer departs from faith in the Word, then he or she has departed from their walk with God and are in apostasy!

And seeing that the last phase of the Church on earth is characterized by the Laodicean Church, which will be, (is), totally apostate, then it is easy to see that there is a major apostasy in view here by the saints of God. "And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God; I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." Revelation 3:14-20

And we notice what is the characteristic of these believers? They are fully involved in the world system; they have given themselves over to the pursuit of money, position and material things; they are totally deluded meaning somebody has deceived them for a long time concerning money and things, such as, the "prosperity gospel" movement. And where do we see Christ? He is the Word standing outside their churches knocking to be admitted! They have departed from the Word!

Now it says that the little horn, the antichrist, will be waging war against the saints, or holy ones, but the pre-tribulation group says this has to refer to Jews and Gentiles that are saved after the rapture of the Church. But all the Christian writers down throughout the centuries have concluded this refers to the Church. We want to note the Son of Man in Daniel 7:13, "I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.” And the dominion and people given to him in Daniel 7:14, “And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.”

We know that this Son of Man is none other than Jesus Christ and that the people given to him reflect the redeemed of the Church Age. And we want to notice the parallel passage in Revelation 5:9,10, “And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.”

The Ancient of days is ‘attiyq moyyaya. The word ancient is the English word used to translate ‘attiyq, which has the meaning of long ago, very old, from a distant past, existence in a distant past, dating from a remote period. The Septuagint used the Greek word palaios to translate ‘attiyq, which also has the same ideas. But there are two Greek words for being old or ancient, one is palaios and the other is archaios. Now, if we wanted to denote the difference between the two, archaios would be the word used to denote the very beginning of something, while palaios would denote that something existed before the beginning!

There are only three references in the Bible to God as the Ancient of Days and all three of them are in Daniel chapter seven. “I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.” Daniel 7:9 “I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.” Daniel 7:13 “Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.” Daniel 7:22

Yahweh is known as the all-powerful one and he is also known as the eternal one. It depends upon how one is viewing God and describing something about his person. If we are looking at him from the subject of power, then he is the all-powerful one. If we are looking at him from the standpoint of existence, how long has he existed? is he dependent upon some thing or someone else to exist?, then we would say that he the self-existent one! That is, he possesses life intrinsically, always has, always will, therefore he is eternal. If we are looking at him from the standpoint of chronology of time, how long has he been alive, how long has he existed, months, days, years, etc.? then we would say that he was in existence, not just since the beginning, but he existed before there was a beginning!

The word for judgment is diyn and is the authoritative, binding decision of a judge in a lawsuit, or in matters of governmental rule. In earlier times judgment was carried out by the tribal chief, then at a higher level later on by the elders at the gate of the city, and even higher on by the king and his official judges as the highest court in the land. Similar today to what all nations still do. But here we have Yahweh, who is presiding over the highest court in the universe, holding court and deciding on a matter concerning his holy ones and judgment is given to them. That is, he will judge and his judgment on this whole matter during this time will be found in favor of his holy ones.

2012 - 2019 – 52 - Daniel 11:37

“Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.” Daniel 11:37 - וְעַל-אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו לֹא יִבִּין, וְעַל-הַמְדַּת נָשִׁים, וְעַל-כָּל-אֱלֹהִים לֹא יִתְגַּדֵּל.

Over the years many prophecy scholars have stated that one of the key features that the antichrist will possess is that he will be a homosexual, or at least a bi-sexual, and they base this conclusion on this passage in the OT. Now I don't know how many of them had a background in Hebrew, or if they came to this conclusion based on a simple reading of the Word in the KJV, but we will see.

The word for regard is both the qal and hiphil future of biyn. Biyn takes on a variety of meanings, such as, to have understanding, to give understanding, or to be able to discern. For example a man may have understanding on a variety of subjects, or biyn can take on a more specialized meaning of having understanding on prophetic concepts, or on concepts concerning wisdom.

When biyn is used concerning discernment, a man may be able to discern good from evil, not in the sense of how our children are brainwashed today in America where good and evil are concepts relative to the individual, but that good and evil are objective concepts based on their own qualities and not on the person's feelings or biases.

Now to understand biyn we have to see that its basic idea is being able to separate, or to distinguish one thing from another, or to make a distinction between one thing and another. To distinguish is to mark off as different, to recognize one thing as being different than another, to divide into classes, to classify.

What this tells us is that the antichrist makes no distinction between having sex with men or women! To him they are all the same. He will be either a homosexual, or a bi-sexual; it's all the same to him! So what this tells us that the antichrist will be a blatant homosexual publicly flaunting it in the face of people so that it's common knowledge to all. Which brings us down to Lightning and Mike; there is not much doubt left, even in the public media, that Mike, Lightning's "wife", is a dude!

It says that he will have no regard for the God of his fathers. Now his mother was Dunlap, who was an acknowledged Jewess, and according to Jewish laws it was the mother who determined as to whether one was a Jew or not, so that would make Lightning a Jew by birth! And even though none of them really worship Yahweh, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Yahweh was the God of the Jews.

Later on down in the passage it also says that neither will he have any regard for any god or deity! He won't have any regard for the God of Israel, nor will he have any regard for any other so-called god or deity. What this says, according to biyn, is that he won't make any distinction between any of them! All of them, the God of Israel and all the other deities worshipped in the world are all the same to him.

And the reason for this is that he believes that he is a deified man – that he is a god, that he is the son of

Lucifer the fallen angel, who claims to be god! And as such he will demand that the world worship him. And the one who will be pushing the worship of the antichrist will be the false prophet, or known to us today as the Pope of Rome. “And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.” Revelations 13:12

Nor the desire of women is we'al-chemdath nashim. The Septuagint translates chemdath as epithumia, which has the idea of desire or lust, which is somewhat true, but it doesn't carry the full range of ideas found in chemdath, which is the feminine singular construct of chemdah. The word nashim is the plural of ishah and is correctly translated as women.

Now the word chemdah begins first with the objective idea that there is something out there that is desirable on account of its form or splendor. Chemdah covers the entire human sequence of viewing something that is beautiful in appearance or valuable and therefore desirable on its own account. From there is the subjective arousal of inward longing, or desire for the object in the individual beholding it, which is usually followed by the individual seeking to make the desired object his own possession, whether it is an inanimate object or a person.

It is found exercised in a variety of ways: pleasant vineyards, handsome young men, beautiful young women, nice homes, beautiful ships, precious objects, magnificent treasures, nice clothes, delicious food, precious vessels, objects made of precious metal. The idea is found today just as back then only different words are used. Young men desire beautiful women because they are beautiful and have great shapes; and young women desire handsome men with fine physiques. There are plenty of things that we see chemdah exercised in today whether its cars, homes, boats, money, gold, etc.. It is a perfectly normal human trait for men in every culture around the world to have this chemdah desire for women who are beautiful and well formed, but not with the antichrist.

But with the antichrist, he will have no chemdah for women! That is, there is nothing about a woman that he finds desirable, not their looks, their beauty, their shape, their softness and feminine qualities; nothing about them that he would love, or be interested in, or want to have sex with. Therefore there is no inner longing or desire of any kind of the antichrist concerning women. So the antichrist will have no regard for his fathers; he will have no desire at all for women; he will have no regard, that is, make any distinction for any deity that is worshipped and will magnify himself above them all.

For he shall magnify himself above all – kiy 'al-kol yithgadal. All is kol and it denotes the whole of something, or all of something, and in context the reference is to gods or deities, so he will magnify himself above all so-called deities, or objects of worship. He makes no distinction between them all, but regards them all the same, in that, he considers himself above them.

The word for magnify is the hithpael of gadal, which is both intensive and reflexive. The word gadal meant to be great and was used in a variety of contexts. If it was talking about money, then the one who had a lot of money was great. If it was talking about trees, then the largest or tallest tree was gadal. If it was talking about political power, then the one in charge was the greatest.

The piel stem intensifies the idea of gadal and because it is reflexive, it tells us that the antichrist will make himself the greatest among men on earth and the deities of heaven. And that's where we get the use of the word to magnify; he will magnify himself above all other deities, even God himself. First, because of his own arrogance, he considers himself to be the greatest in his own mind, followed by much boasting about himself, then he sets about to destroy anyone who challenges that thinking.

“I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.” Daniel 7:8 “I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.” Daniel 7:11

“And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;” Daniel 7:20,21

“And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.” Revelations 13:5-7

The Return Of Marduk?

A little snippet of the news dated June 18, 2013 in the Africa Review out of Kenya, is that both ex-President Clinton and Obama were visiting a little place in Africa called Senegal. It is also rumored that ex-President Bush was there also during the same time period of around 72 hours. It was also noted in the French newspaper, Le Populaire. Senegal has also been visited by the former UN Secretary-General Kofi Annan and by Pope Jean Paul II. The visit of three American presidents to Africa during the same time period is unprecedented in history.

The question being circulated is why? Did the three of them meet up with each other for some special reason? Or, as some of the reports that are coming back in are saying, that the three of them met up with a very special world dignitary, who is covertly assuming power over the world first in Africa, then the entire world! And they were there to pay homage to him pledging that they would support his NWO takeover of the world!

It is rumored that this mysterious entity is the actual ruler of a third force that has descended to earth to assert control over the nations. This has been stated by certain individuals in the Secret shadow Government and MJ-12 that this new world leader is being revealed only to selected insiders, who will pledge fealty to his world rule.

Now as far-fetched and improbable as this sounds the final scenario of the anti-christ taking over the world will go something along these lines, which many prophecy teachers have put forth for decades. And before it is dismissed outright, all possibilities must be considered and studied. What will be coming up in the future will shatter many believers' preconceived ideas. Things that they never thought could ever be possible will become the new reality! Consider just cell phones and ipads.

As the rumor goes this foreign powerful dignitary has a name and he has descended to Africa from an alien spacecraft. His name is Marduk and it is said that he is from an interstellar race of beings called the Annunaki, or also referred to as the Nephilim! The rumor continues that he is a luciferic demon from the inter-dimensional black planet Nibiru.

It is said that these luciferic demons were driven away from the planet by the flood, while their half-alien and half-human offspring, who populated the earth in great numbers, except for Noah and his family, died during the flood. But now they have begun a come-back to earth during the twentieth century by once again inter-breeding with certain chosen bloodlines, which have maintained the “ancient Luciferian heritage” dating back to Babylon.

These bloodlines are some of the oldest, richest and most powerful families on the earth and make up the higher levels of what is referred to as the Illuminati, which means Lucifer illuminated. They are especially anointed with Luciferian power, giving them the power to take over the world step by step till they have final control over the world. The visible leaders of the various nations are nothing more than the puppets they control behind the scenes.

Interestingly enough Marduk was the chief deity of the Babylonian pantheon. He was represented by the golden calf and was also known as the solar calf. And, as we know, it was the golden calf that the Israelites worshipped at Mt. Sinai and later on in the land. Marduk would be the son of an earth woman and Lucifer himself. Just as Tammuz was the son of Nimrod and Semiramis, and Horus was the son of Osiris and Isis. How do we know that this being called Marduk is none other than the same Marduk who ruled over ancient Babylon? And that he is the genetic offspring, son, of Lucifer/Hellel and an earth woman and now he has come back to take over the rule of the world!

2012 - Preparing For The End Times - Review

“And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.” Luke 21:34

Intro:

In Luke 21 the disciples were talking to the Lord about the temple and his return to earth and he tells them that the temple will be so torn down that not one stone will be left on another. So they asked him about when this will happen and what will be the sign of his return to earth. “And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?” Luke 21:7

He goes into the matter of the destruction of Israel, its being trampled upon by the Gentiles and its state right up to the time of Christ's return to earth in Luke 21:12-24. And then he goes back and talks about his return in Luke 21:24-36 and the things going on concerning it. The term trampling upon covers the concepts ranging from the occupation of the land by Gentiles merely living on the land all the way to occupying the land by the Gentiles under military rule. “But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot (trample) forty and two months.” Revelation 11:2

One of the things that the Lord mentioned prior to his return to the earth was the rise of the nation Israel once more. “And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.” Luke 21: 29-32

The Lord says that the generation of people living at the time of the forming of the nation of Israel will not pass away before the 2nd Advent of Christ. Now a generation was 70 years, so we have 70 years as being the total time bracket. Most believe that Israel became a nation in 1948, but that's inaccurate. It was 1948 when Israel submitted its papers to the UN to be formally accepted as a nation, but those papers were rejected! So they had to go back and change the problem and resubmit them the next year. So Israel actually became a nation in 1949!

But the papers for their partitioning of the land took place in 1947. So the years 1947, 1948 and 1949 are the target years in view. So, if we take 70 years as a generation, we then have the years 2017, 2018 and 2019 as the target years for the outer limit for Christ's return! But we can add in one more thing and that is the rabbis had a prophecy that their messiah would arise 69 years after the forming of the Israeli state. So now the target years become 2016, 2017, or 2018. Taking all things in consideration we have four potential dates for the beginning of the Tribulation: 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012.

End time pitfalls.

“And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.” Luke 21:34 - προσεχετε δε εαυτοις μηποτε βαρυνθωσιν υμων αι καρδιαι εν κραπαλη και μεθη και μεριμναις βιωτικαις και αιφνιδιος εφ υμας επιστη η ημερα εκεινη

The first thing we come across is the verb, take heed, or be careful, in the NIV. It is found in the present active imperative of prosecho and we see that it is a call to action! Any time you find the imperative mood in the Greek it is a call to action by the believer. And in the active voice it is the believer's responsibility to do something, as denoted by the verb! And in the present tense it tells us that this action is something that we must continually be doing!

Prosecho is a function of the mind directed toward something and it meant to turn one's mind to something, to pay attention to a situation or a matter, to notice what's going on, to be concerned about something, to occupy oneself in something, to be devoted to a matter, to be aware of what's going on, to beware of what could be going on.

What it is centering around is we paying attention to our own spiritual life. This is always a mandate for the people of God, but as we are in, or approaching, the end times; it becomes a more pressing issue of great importance. The problem of anxieties, dissipation and drunkenness are actually the result of not living in our spiritual life.

We must really pay attention to our walk with the Lord, our living in the spiritual life dynamic, our living by faith, our claiming the promises by faith, the faith rest drill, our consistent daily intake of Bible Doctrine, our decisions, our associations, our being filled with the Holy Spirit, avoiding the lust pattern of the flesh nature, and because it is the end times, the study of prophecy. We must be aware that the slightest departure from any of these things, on any given particular day, could mean us spinning off away from us living in our own spiritual life dynamic.

Of course we are to stay away from drunkenness and dissipation, but we need to understand that these concepts are something that many will end up because they have departed from living in the spiritual life! Anxiety and other emotional concepts also await those who get away from new nature living.

To appreciate what the Lord is talking about we have to go back to the context of the passage where the Lord is talking about his return to earth, the events occurring during that time, and the mental state of people. “There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. People will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken.” Luke 21:26,27

We are talking about the latter part of the Last days right before Christ’s return to earth. All the sinful activities mentioned in 2 Timothy 3:1-5 will be rampant throughout the world: perilous times, men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

Society will be in shambles, families torn apart and turning against each other, the economy wiped out, currencies obliterated, government will be a tyrannical monster, wars all over the world, the mark of the beast being enforced on people, men in the process of destroying the earth, the weather out of control, demons arriving on earth in droves driven by their master, Satan, and then we also have the shaking of the heavens and objects plunging to earth with the resultant tidal waves and fires breaking out all over the world! It will be no wonder that people will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken. This is why it is so important for us to take heed to our spiritual life and to watch and pray – now!

Dissipation and drunkenness are what many people use to reduce stress in their lives, to escape the realities of life, and have also been a problem for many of God’s people. And that’s in normal times! But what happens to the stress level, when everything around us is spinning out of control? Well the pressure gets greater, and if not handled with the spiritual provisions that God supplies to us, it will end up being stress in the soul. And that’s when people turn to alcohol, or any other concept that will either dull the minds, or get our minds off our problems. In addition to alcohol are drugs, TV, music, all the technological gadgets, keeping busy and all sorts of other things people use to cope with stress.

Overcharged, or weighed down in some translations, is the aorist passive subjunctive of bareo, and it meant to be weighed down with something heavy. There are many things that weigh us down in life, our personal responsibilities, old age, our health, finances, our work, family problems, making a living, just surviving, then add unto that all the evil laws being passed by a police state, economic woes, the prospect of the upcoming antichrist and natural disasters, all of which are a constant threat to us, these are the things that weigh us down. But included in that are the problems of dissipation and drunkenness. How so? What we thought would help us in the long term just adds to our problem!

Life has always had its problems in normal times, but in the end times that will increase exponentially. And if the solution for handling stress in normal times is living in the spiritual life dynamic, then how much more so in the end times! And what the Lord wants us to do is devote ourselves to living in the spiritual life, being in the Word, living by faith and having an understanding of prophecy.

Dissipation is kraipale and it entailed all the aspects of drinking, bar-hopping, partying, etc., with the emphasis on the negative results of all that. Which would include such things as: squandering of one’s resources, money, health, time, hangovers, etc.. It entails any and all forms of escapism. One can dissipate himself morally, financially, spiritually, emotionally and physically.

When pressure gets to maximum level, as it will in the end times, and society starts to unravel, as we see going on in America, as our cherished institutions of marriage, family, freedom and nationalism, start to be destroyed, a lot of people will turn to the party scene to escape the reality of it all. They will do so because they haven't got a clue as to what's going on doctrinally and prophetically. They knew that all this was going to happen some day – but not today! Not in their lifetime.

Drunkenness is methe and it's not referring to drinking, but drinking to excess where one is intoxicated or buzzed. Although the moderate drinking of wine has some health benefits, and in certain cases encouraged, drinking to excess is always forbidden in Scripture.

Drunkenness is also used as a figure of speech referring to believers, who have turned away from living by faith in the spiritual life dynamic and have given themselves over to emotionalism, or have turned from the Word to go after so-called spiritual experiences, or who turned away from sound doctrine and gone after the idolatry of the Babylonian cult.

Drunkenness is one of the flesh's faulty problem solving devices people use to cope with the pressure of life, which will be much greater as time goes by. It produces a blurry fog by which the problems of life will be kept outside of the stream of consciousness of the soul. But it doesn't work. Drowning one's problems in "Whiskey River" doesn't solve them. Instead one wakes up only to find them still there, only now one has a hangover and has less money. Instead God wants us to stop being drunk with wine and to start being filled with the Holy Spirit. "And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;" Ephesians 5:17

And cares of this life are kai merimnais biotikais. Biotikos deals with the physical side of our nature and it denotes that which pertains to everyday life, what is involved in appropriating the necessities of life. It is gaining the means of maintaining one's physical life, how we're going to live, what we're going to eat, paying our bills, having a roof over our heads, food in our bellies, clothes on our backs, health needs, medical needs, etc..

This will vary, somewhat, from nation to nation, people to people, but all on earth have the same basic problem of getting together the things they need in life to survive. Whether one lives in a small village in the jungle, or in a high-rise apartment in New York City, all share the same problem of trying to get together the things they need to maintain their physical existence.

People get concerned about the stability of their jobs, the economy, the weather, the political stability of their government, to their mode of transportation to get back and forth to work, whether on foot, bus, or in cars, to trying to set money aside for their old age, to protecting what they have – all on earth have the same problem. And biotikos refers to all that – the necessities of life!

But there is another word connected to it in the passage and that is merimnos. Merimnos is the word for anxiety or worry. It has the idea of being mentally drawn into different directions. Things connected to our survivability come into the mind for attention; our minds are distracted by them and drawn to them to try to solve them. And as our minds are diverted to them trying to figure them out, or come up with a solution for them, then something else pops into our minds calling for our attention. We don't handle the first one by faith, and then another one comes into the mind, and we don't handle it by faith, so our minds go from one topic to another and nothing is ever resolved!

Our thinking goes back and forth from one subject to another, but nothing is ever resolved and that's because we are not handling it by faith in the promises of God! Basically, worry or anxiety is thinking without faith! There's nothing wrong with Christians thinking; doctrinal thinking is a part of our spiritual priesthood. But our thinking is to be based upon faith in what God has promised!

And there is a passage in scripture that deals with and solves that very negative dynamic! “Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.” Proverbs 3:5,6

The word for trust here is batach in the imperative mood of command, and batach brings out the idea of the inner sense of feeling secure that comes about as the result of exercising faith in what God has promised. All humans are creatures of insecurity. It is a part of our problem here on earth due to the fall of man. We feel vulnerable. We know that we are completely open to every area of threat to our well being, both our souls and our bodies, even to our own existence.

And this vulnerability, this insecurity, will always trigger the emotional complex of the soul and the first emotion that becomes activated is fear! And fear brings with it torment. “There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.” 1 John 4:18

And this torment, kolasis, actually punishes the soul; punishes the soul just like somebody being punished or tormented in prison. It also keeps us in a state of servitude. We actually become slaves to that which makes us afraid. And the only solution for that is being perfected in agape love, which springs forth out of the believer exercising faith in the promises of God.

Now in our verse we see that we are to take heed to ourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, to take heed, The first thing we come across is the verb take heed, or be careful, in the NIV, which, in the imperative mood is a call to action! Any time you find the imperative mood in the Greek it is a call to action by the believer. And in the active voice it is the believer’s responsibility to do something, as denoted by the verb! And in the present tense it tells us that this action is something that we must continually be doing! We are to do this all the time, but even more so as we go into the last days.

Prosecho, as we have seen, is a function of the mind directed toward something and it meant to turn one’s mind to something, to pay attention to a situation or a matter, to notice what’s going on, to be concerned about something, to occupy oneself in something, to be devoted to a matter, to be aware of what’s going on, to beware of what could be going on.

So what are we to be concerned about to the place of taking Biblical action? Our hearts being weighed down by dissipation, drunkenness and worrying about the things in life we need to get by! Weighed down is the arist passive subjunctive of bareo, and it meant to be weighed down with something heavy, to have a heavy load. Point of doctrine, anxiety, or worrying about things and how we’re going to make it in life, places a heavy weight on our hearts.

Now God doesn’t want us to be worried about being worried about not having the things of life we need to get by on. But he wants us to be aware of the problem and apply the doctrinal solution he has supplied to us in grace, and that is the exercising of the faith rest dynamic! Whenever the believer is living in the sphere of faith in the Word of God, then he or she will be living in the sphere of peace that he has given to us all, and at the same time, the soul will be protected from the ravages of the emotional complex of the flesh nature!

But if the believer is not living in the sphere of faith in the Word of God, then their soul will be flooded with the various feelings of the flesh nature, the first being the fear complex, which is what merimnos, or the anxieties of life is all about. Whenever a weight is placed on the heart, which is what the idea of pressure is all about, weight = pressure, then the heart reacts with feelings.

And when we talk about pressure, we are talking about thlipsis and we are talking about the tribulation and the great tribulation. Which simply means that during this time in history there will be great pressure on the saints of God. Great pressure, great weight, great weight on the heart, all translating into a major problem with anxiety, along with all the other feelings of the emotional complex of the flesh. To the place where there will be men's hearts failing them for fear. "Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken." Luke 21:26 Looking after is prosdokia and it has the idea of apprehension over impending evil or destruction. Remember, apprehension is a part of the fear complex and it denotes the fear of what might happen.

But God has supplied his people something that will prevent our souls from being overwhelmed by apprehension, or the anxieties of life, and that is his promises and the faith rest dynamic. "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust." 2 Peter 1:4 In God's grace he has given us his promises to believe, and the faith to believe them comes as we focus our attention back on the promises. And as we do so, then peace starts to come back to our souls and all the negative feelings of the emotional complex leave.

The "Jews"

We have seen in heaven there is the divine council composed of gods and Yahweh, who is the true God presiding over it. We have also seen that there is a prosecutorial figure known as Satan, or the satan. With the definite article it tells us that what we have is not a proper name, but a title or description of this person making it the satan, or the prosecutorial figure.

We have also seen, when this person rebelled against God, he influenced one third of the celestial beings to join in with him in his rebellion against Yahweh, the supreme El. And from our study of the NT we have also found that those who sided with him are broken down into four ranks of authority and power. The rulers – arche, authorities – exousia, world powers – kosmokratōras, and spiritual wickedness in the high places – poneria...epouranios.

Now having said that, so far we are looking only at the celestial, or angelic, hierarchy by which Satan rules the world. But there is something else and that is he has a people here on earth that belong to him; an identifiable and recognizable people that are devoted to him, whether they are aware of it or not. There are those who are consciously aware of this and look to him as their god, and there are those who aren't aware that he is the one they serve, but are doing it anyway.

Who are these people? Well the Lord tells us exactly who they are in Revelation 3:9! He says they are the Jews! "Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee." - ιδου διδωμι εκ της συναγωγης του σατανα των λεγοντων εαυτους ιουδαιους ειναι και ουκ εισιν αλλα ψευδονται ιδου ποιησω αυτους ινα ηξωσιν και προσκυνησωσιν ενωπιον των ποδων σου και γνωσιν οτι εγω ηγαπησα σε.

It is Jesus Christ, not some church group, or individuals in society that says that, it is the Jews who are the synagogue of Satan! And we want to note that the original has it as, tes sunagoges tou satana, or the synagogue of the satan. And, as we have seen in our study on the Divine Council, the term the satan is a descriptive title that this celestial being bears and it means the prosecutorial figure. That's right, this same prosecutorial figure that we have seen going in and out of the Divine Council in heaven is the same individual named here! So we could render this NT passage as, "Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of the prosecutorial figure, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee."

It was the Jews that had turned the temple and worship of God into a commercial enterprise. "And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise." John 2:13-16

It was the Jews who confronted Christ in unbelief. "Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? But he spake of the temple of his body." John 2:18-20,21

The peer pressure of the Jews was designed to keep the rest of the people in line. This is why Nicodemus came to the Lord by night. "There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him." John 3:1,2 "*Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews." John 7:13

The Jews had no dealings with the Samaritans. While Christ came to save them. "Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans." John 4:9

The Jews cared not for the welfare of people, only that they kept their law. "Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath. The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed." John 5:8-10

It was the Jews that persecuted the Lord and tried to murder him. "The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole. And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day." John 5:15,16

It was the Jews who accused him of breaking the Sabbath, (which, by the way, he had instituted), and sought even harder to murder him. "Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God." John 5:18

It was the Jews who were grumbling and murmuring at the Lord. "The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven." John 6:41

It was the Jews who scoffed at the spiritual lesson that he was teaching concerning salvation. And they were arguing among themselves on how to kill him, machomai! The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" John 6:52

It was the Jews who had conspired together to murder the Lord. "After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him." John 7:1

It was the Jews who were openly going around to find the Lord so they could kill him. "Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?" John 7:11 "Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?" John 7:19

It was the Jews that colluded with the Roman government to capture Christ. "Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?" John 7:45

Those Jews were Abraham's physical seed, sperma. "They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?" John 8:33 But they were not Abraham's children, teknon. "They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham." John 8:39,40 Abraham did not try to kill him, as they were. "I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you." John 8:37

The Jews accused him of being a Samaritan and being demon-possessed! "Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?" John 8:48

The Jews were also calling him a liar. "Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying." John 8:55

The Jews instilled the fear of repercussion in anyone who confessed the name of Christ. "These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue." John 9:22

It was from the Jews came the blasphemous statements that Christ was demon-possessed and was crazy. "There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings. And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?" John 10:19,20

The Jews accused Christ of blasphemy and wanted to stone him to death. "Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God." John 10:31-33

It was the leadership of the Jews, the chief priests and the Pharisees, that conspired to murder the Lord. "Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death. Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples." John 11:53,54

It was the chief priests of the Jews, who conspired to murder Lazarus, because Jesus had raised him from the dead. "Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;" John 12:9,10

It was the chief priests and Pharisees from the Jews, who had ordered a band of men and officers led by Judas, to go out to arrest the Lord and bring him to trial. “Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.” John 18:3

It was the Jews, who handed the Lord over to the Roman authorities to be killed. “Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death.” John 18:31 They said that because they wanted to retain their false, public image of being good and moral people! But they were liars, hypocrites and full of self-righteous human good and arrogance. How do we know? Because they had already tried to throw him off a cliff and stone him to death!

Pilate found no legal basis for having him crucified, so he gave the Jews the option of releasing one man on the Passover in accordance with their custom. He gave them the choice of releasing the Lord or Barabbas the thief. And whom did they choose? Barabbas the thief! “Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.” John 10:38-40

It was the Jews who were screaming out for Christ to be crucified. “When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.” John 19:6

It was the Jews who denied that Jesus was their king. Instead, they publicly proclaimed that Caesar was. Actually Caesar was an antichrist figure, so what they were saying is that the antichrist was their king! “*But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.” John 19:15

When Pilate wrote the title that Christ was the King of the Jews and nailed it over the Lord’s head, it was the Jews who wanted him to take it down! Their evil goes down to the last detail. There is no depth, nook, or cranny that they will not pursue in their self-righteous, legalistic, destructive hate. “And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.” John 19:19-22

It was the Jews that were trying to murder the Apostle Paul. “*But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him.” Acts 19:22,23

It was the Jews that had Christ crucified. “And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;” Acts 10:39,49

It was the Jews, who were jealous of the numbers of Paul's ministry that opposed Paul and the others. “But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.” Acts 13:45

It was the Jews who turned the Gentiles against the Christians in Iconium. “And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.” Acts 14:1,2

It was the Jews, who stirred up the crowd and stoned the Apostle Paul, and having supposed him to be dead, they drug him out of the city. “And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.” Acts 14:19

In Thessalonica the Jews manipulated the low-life in that town to attack the house of Jason. “But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.” Acts 17:5

When the Jews heard that Bible doctrine, the Word of God, was being preached in Berea, they went there to stir up the people there. “But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.” Acts 17:13

The Jews always had themselves in the position to be able to manipulate the various governments in the countries in which they lived. They're still doing it today. But it backfired on them in this instance. “And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,” Acts 18:12-17

The Jews continually plotted to capture and kill the Apostle Paul. “And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.” Acts 23:30

It was the Jews that fomented the persecution of the Church in Jerusalem. “And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles.” Acts 8:1

It was the Jews who killed the Lord Jesus, their prophets, persecuted Christians and forbade Christians from witnessing to the Gentiles. “Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.” 1 Thessalonians 2:15,16

It was the Jews who denied, (and still do publicly deny it), that Jesus was the Messiah. Which makes them the truly antichrists. The term Messiah was solely a term belonging to Israel and the Jews. (The Gentiles had no knowledge of such a thing as a Messiah). And it was they who denied he was the Messiah, along with him being the king of the Jews and the Son of God. “Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ, (ο χριστος, ho christos – the Messiah)? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.” 1 John 2:22

It was the Jews who were the subject of Christ's statement on the parable of the tenants. They knew he was the heir of the land and they purposely plotted to murder him to steal his inheritance! “But when the tenants saw him, they talked the matter over. 'This is the heir,' they said. 'Let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' Luke 20:14 They also knew that the Lord was talking about them, when he spoke this parable. They knew he was the heir. And they knew that he was aware of what they were doing and going to do. "The teachers of the law and the chief priests looked for a way to arrest him immediately, because they knew he had spoken this parable against them. But they were afraid of the people." Luke 20:19 It is this same dynamic that is going on today in Israel.

Most know of the Russian revolution where the Tsar Nicholas II and his entire family, who were Christians, were murdered. But it was not a Russian revolution, but a Jewish overthrow of the royal family. Jews from all over Europe and the lower east side of New York City flooded into Russia to depose the royal family and take over the control of Russia. They were called Bolsheviks, but everyone who knew of the matter, as was also brought out in the March to May 1929 issues of the New York times, which published the findings of the US Senate's investigation of the matter, knew them to be, and called them as Jewish Bolsheviks. After their takeover of the nation, they installed over 500 Jews out of 520, or so, in the top positions of government. After the Jews had completed their takeover of Russia, who was America's friend and ally at one time, even coming to our aid in our revolution for independence, over 66 million Russians were starved or slaughtered by the Jews! And, those who know the truth of history, whenever anyone spoke of communism, it was never referred to as just communism, but Jewish communism for it was the brainchild of the Jews!

The Jews also flooded into Germany from eastern Europe and Poland targeting the professions of teaching, banking, and lawyers and whenever promotions came open they brought their friends and families in to fill those positions. In a short time the German people had lost control of these things, their economy was in a shambles, their currency had been ridiculously devalued and family farms, which had been in the families for centuries, were lost to foreclosure to the banks. What this did is lead up to the political situation of the National Socialist Party.

Every nation in Eastern Communist Europe was controlled at the top by Jews. Ceausescu of Romania was but one of them. All the top positions of France today are controlled by Jews, yet they only make up one half of one percent of the population of France!

When one talks about freemasonry, those who know the truth about the background of all this, it is Jewish freemasonry. Freemasonry was their brainchild that goes back centuries to Babylon, where the Jews picked up on the Mystery Religion. So whenever we talk about these three concepts, we are really talking about Jewish Bolshevism, Jewish communism and Jewish freemasonry.

In America today the Jews have taken over the State Department, Homeland Security, the White House, the Congress, the Federal Reserve, TSA, much of the military and the Pentagon. They control all the major TV networks, all the major newspapers, all the major magazines, Hollywood, every aspect of the medias, even to affecting legislation that has banned all Christian influences, such as, the removal of manger scenes throughout America, banning of any Christian concepts in everything belonging to government, the removal of all the crosses from the Punch Bowl in Honolulu, forbidding even the mention of the name of Jesus in any form in the public schools, etc., etc.. It is the Jews and their organizations that are actively working to eliminate the name of Jesus from America!

And above all this is the Vatican with the pope at the top. The Jews, freemasonry, the Jesuits, the mafia and the Mossad all meet at the top in Rome. Talmudic Judaism is nothing more than the mystery religion of Babylon co-mingled with elements of Judaism. Judaism is the front organization to lead Jews away from Christ. Islam is the front organization designed to lead Arabs away from Christ. And Catholicism is the front organization to lead Gentiles away from a saving knowledge of Christ. Freemasonry is the front organization to lead non-religious types of people away from Christ. And behind all that are Talmudic Jews carrying on with the practices of Babylon.

George Galloway, a liberal member of the UK Parliament, recently stated that it was the Jews who aided and used Nelson Mandela to overthrow the Christian government of South Africa, and through the media of that nation, deceived the people of South Africa to abandon their constitution. The aftermath was thousands of white farmers being slaughtered by the blacks and the murder rate of Johannesburg now is 100 times that of Washington, DC.

“And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.” Revelations 11:8 Obviously this is a reference to the city associated with the Jews, Jerusalem, for that was where the Lord was crucified. Sodom is a reference to homosexuality and Egypt is a reference to the mystery religion carried down in the form of freemasonry. So what this tells us that Jerusalem will be, and now already is, the world headquarters of homosexuality and freemasonry.

“And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.” Revelation 12:1,2

The constellation Virgo will be clothed in the sun, the moon will be under her feet, and on her head will be the twelve stars of Leo the lion. She then gives birth to Jupiter. This will only happen on September, 23, 2017. It also is Rosh Hashanah and the Feast of Trumpets.

“The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:” Acts 2:20 The blood moon or hunter's moon, the first moon after harvest. And was a blood-colored moon. To have four of them in one year was a very rare event. In the Jewish 2014-2015 year there are four of them, a tetrad. April 15, 2014 – The Passover; October 8, 2014 – Feast of Tabernacles; April 4, 2015 – The Passover; September 28, 2015 – Feast of Tabernacles.

Kerry said that a final peace agreement would be made April 2014 for a two nation state with Israel and the Palestinians so they can live in peace.

The Lord said that many believers will turn away from the faith, (sound doctrinal teaching plus faith), betray and hate each other, and that many false prophets (teachers) will appear and deceive many people. “Then shall they deliver you, (paradidomi – hand over to the authorities)), up to be afflicted, (eis thlipsis – resulting in pressure), and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. And then shall many be offended, (skandalizo – offended by doctrinal truth), and shall betray, (paradidomi – hand over to the authorities), one another, (allellos – one another of the same kind - Christians), and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.” Matthew 24:9-11

Many false prophets (teachers) will rise up. (Some translations have it as appear). The word rise up is the future passive indicative of egeiro – to rise up, or to be raised up! Now what this shows, because things don't just happen overnight, is that a satanic system will already be in place that will consist of money, political and military power, organizational structure and a religious theology, that takes men and women, who agree with, or are in line with, the goals and theology of this satanic system, and elevates them to positions of power and influence.

Rise up here is in the passive voice, which shows that, because the subject receives the action of the verb, these false prophets will be raised up by other people, who are a part of this satanic system, to the place where these false prophets will have and hold positions of influence in the halls of the Church! One of the best venues for this today is the medium of television. To err, or to deceive, is from the verb planao, which means to lead astray. And to be led astray they first must be deceived. And to be deceived they first must be fed false or incorrect, information to give people a false impression.

The term false prophet – pseudoprophētēs, does not refer to men who hold the spiritual gift of prophecy, but is a term for men who are supposed to communicate the truths of God, but instead they communicate certain teachings that are either false or misleading! Remember, every statement men make to mislead people doesn't have to be a lie! All they need to do is weave in enough error with the truth and they can accomplish the same purpose, or be off on certain key doctrines.

Now when you have false prophets you will also have true prophets as well! There are three things that make a false prophet a false prophet. 1) what they teach is false and misleading. 2) They have not been called or appointed by God. 3) they pass themselves off as God's communicators, that is, they have “put on the cloak” of a prophet in the OT, or portray themselves as a Christian communicator in the NT, without having the spiritual gift and calling from God.

So, in order to mislead believers in Christ at the end of the age, these false teachers/prophets will be regarded as being true communicators of God's Word – but they're not! And out of the many false prophets that will be out there at the end of the age leading the unsaved away from a true faith in the true Jesus Christ, and leading believers in Christ away from the truth about end time phenomena will be the False Prophet – the pope!

This second beast from the earth will have two horns like a lamb, the public persona of being a Christian, but will speak the words of the dragon! “And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” Revelations 13:11 The animal that symbolized Christians in the NT is the lamb; and the animal that symbolized Satan in the dragon. So his disguise will be one of being a Christian, but his words are from Satan himself.

And because he will be regarded as being a Christian, and because he holds such a high position of power and esteem in the Christian Church and world at large, he will be able to influence and deceive people into taking the mark of the beast, this upcoming computer, RFID tagging system, probably the EES. “And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:” Revelations 13:16 “*And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived (planao – lead astray) them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.*” Revelation 19:20

There are some concepts that are identified with the False Prophet that will be found to one degree or another, in one form or another, in the other false prophets. 1) telling people that they must submit to the international law of the New World Order under the man of sin; 2) he performs great signs; 3) he causes fire to come down from heaven; 4) he directs the people of the earth to worship, that is, give obeisance to the world ruler; 5) he will be the driving force behind getting people to take the mark of the beast, which has already been placed into law that everybody is to have attached to their body via the Obama care act.

In October, 2013 when John MacArthur, a leading evangelical, was asked about taking the mark of the beast, he explained it all away saying that the Church will be raptured before it comes out. Then he went into an area of blatant heresies and lies. He outright stated that you can take the mark of the beast and still be saved! He said that the unsaved, and even Christians, could take the mark of the beast and still go to heaven! By the way, the forced taking of the Epidermal Electronic System (EES) on the forehead or right hand is scheduled to be implemented by the year 2017!

And MacArthur is not the only religious figure associated with the Christian Church here in America that is spreading this lie, but clergymen in the Pentecostal, Charismatic and Modernist circles, along with some evangelicals and the pope. They are still holding on to this false hope, based upon the false teaching of a Jesuit priest named Manuel LaCunza, who wrote under the deceiving pseudonym of a Rabbi Ben Ezra, which was promoted by Pentecostals in the Catholic Apostolic Church in the British Isles and the Plymouth Brethren movement that the mark of the beast will not be implemented before the pre-tribulation rapture of the Church!

Now if these men were dressed in satanic, or witch's robes, people in the churches wouldn't listen to them! But because they are in the churches and have identified themselves as "ministers" in the Church, the people assign to them some level of credibility. This is how false prophets operate and this is how they deceive and lead many astray.

Now these false teachers are telling people that the unsaved can take the mark of the beast and still get saved afterward! And that the "saved" can take the mark of the beast and still go to heaven! But what does the Word of God say?

The Word says that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark of the beast. "And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." Revelations 13:16,17

The Word says that there is a great company of believers in Christ standing on the glassy sea, these believers had overcome the beast and his system. Overcoming is in the present active participle, which shows that this was an ongoing event. They were overcoming the beast by not worshipping his image, and by not taking his mark! It's impossible to be victorious over the system of the beast by giving in and taking his mark! "And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God." Revelations 15:2

The Word says that those who take the mark will be afflicted with grievous sores. "And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image." Revelations 16:2

The Word says that at the end there will be two groups of people, those who take the mark of the beast and those who don't. Those who don't will go into the eternal state, and those who do will go into the eternal fire! "And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.” Revelations 20:4-6

The Word says very clearly that if anyone worships the beast and takes the mark of the beast, he shall drink the wine of God's wrath mixed undiluted from the cup of his anger. They will be tormented by fire and brimstone before the Lord and his angels forever - even if they just take the mark! “*And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.” Revelation 14:9-11 Now the question is, are we going to base our decisions, which can affect our lives, even eternity, on the theological systems of men, or on what the Word of God says?

Now as to the Church not being in the Tribulation (pressure), as the Dispensationalists teach, we see the Apostle John in Revelation 7:13 talking to one of the elders about this large group of people dressed in white robes and he wanted to know who they were and where they came from! “And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?” Revelations 7:13

Then in Revelation 7:14 he tells them that they are the ones coming out of the great tribulation! “*And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.” - οἱ ἐρχομενοὶ ἐκ τῆς θλίψεως τῆς μεγάλης, hoi erchomenoi ek tes thlipseos tes megales.

We notice that they are coming out of the Tribulation using the preposition ek, which shows a departure from something that they were formally in with the idea of a total separation from it. We also notice that the present participle tells us that this is an ongoing action. It tells us as the Tribulation grinds on there will be many believers in Christ, who will be losing their lives because they rejected the beast and his mark, and as the process goes on they will be coming out of the Tribulation and end up under the altar of God in heaven.

Revelations 7:15 tells us something more that adds to the concept. It tells us that they will be in the temple of God and be serving him day and night. “Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.”

We see, first of all, that they will be in the temple of God and the only ones allowed in his temple are the priests of God! Secondly, they are not just in a temple, but also in the place referred to as the Holy of Holies, the actual room of God's presence, naos. Thirdly, they serve him using the word latreuo, which was the technical word used of priests who serve God.

Now who are these people who came out of the Great Tribulation? Context tells us that the apostle, John, who was a Christian, is writing to the seven churches of Asia Minor, the seven churches being Christian as well! “John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;” Revelations 7:4*

In Revelation 5:10 the apostle John states that Christ purchased us and that we will reign on the earth. “And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.”

By the use of the plurals us and we, Christ redeemed us, and that we shall reign on the earth, he has put himself in that group of people. The subject of Revelations 7:14,15 is this great number of people, who are coming out of the great tribulation, and we see that they are the ones who will be serving God as priests in his temple, and John will be one of those serving God in his temple as a priest.

Peter also spoke of this matter of the Church being the priests of God in 1 Peter 2:9, “But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:”

The writer of Hebrews tells us that there has been a change of the priesthood of God in the New Covenant and that now we are its priests and Jesus Christ is its High Priest! “As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.” Hebrews 5:6 “Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.” Hebrews 5:10 “Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.” Hebrews 6:20 “Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;” Hebrews 8:1

#50 - Seven Mountains

“And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.” Revelation 12:3 - και ωφθη αλλο σημειον εν τω ουρανω και ιδου δρακων μεγας πυρρος εχων κεφαλας επτα και κερατα δεκα και επι τας κεφαλας αυτου διαδηματα επτα.

“And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.” Revelation 17:9 - ωδε ο νους ο εχων σοφιαν αι επτα κεφαλαι ορη εισιν επτα οπου η γυνη καθηται επ αυτων.

Most Christians are familiar with the concept that the seven hills, sometimes referred to as mountains, refer to the seven hills that the city of Rome sits upon. But Jerusalem also sits on seven hills, and some say that even Washington, DC sits on what could be called hills. But we do know that this refers to the Roman Catholic Church, which sits in Rome. But is this reference to the seven mountains something else other than the geographical site of Rome?

But there is a structure to Rome and there is an organization, and in this organization there is the visible power and “the power behind the throne”. Above the priests, and above the cardinals, we see the pope at the top, and it is only been recently that we see the power above the visible pope is the one called, “the black pope”, who is the Jesuit General.

But has anyone ever entertained the idea that there is a power behind all that? That the Roman Catholic Church, the Vatican, the pope and the Jesuit General are nothing more than a front organization for the true power behind the scenes? A power that has been firmly entrenched for hundreds of years? Family dynasties that go back centuries?

The word mountain is used both literally and figuratively; it is also used literally with a figurative use along with it. In the Greek the word mountain is used as a metonymy for a mountainous region, for hill country, for the idols worshipped there and for the people inhabiting that region.

Even to this day we have people, families, clans and tribes identified with some prominent geographical landmark where they lived, worked, hunted, gathered, planted, etc.. It could be a river, a mountain, a lake, or something else. In our area we had the Indian tribes who lived around Mt. Shasta, Mt. Lassen, or the Pit River. And there were the Indians on the Klamath River, the upper Klamath and the lower Klamath. One of the first towns settled in northern California by white people is Red Bluff named after the red bluffs on the Sacramento River.

So the word mountain can be used literally for a real mountain or hill, and it can be used figuratively at the same time to refer to a region surrounding that mountain or hill and the people that lived there. And looking at a mountain it is nothing more than dirt, just like its counterpart in the low lands and valleys, the only difference being that the mountain rises up above the others. Which tells us that there always has to be a ruling family, or clan, a dynasty, which refers to a family of rulers who rule over a country for a long period of time, a succession of rulers of the same line of descent.

So what this indicates to us is that Rome, the Vatican, the Roman Catholic Church, Babylon in a Christian disguise, is the religious front organization for seven ruling dynasties located in Italy. Seven different families that have ruled the world through the Vatican for centuries!

The passage also tells us that these seven mountains are seven heads. The word for head is kephale and it denoted the authority of someone over something. The passage tells us that the woman, Mystery Babylon, the Roman Catholic Church sits upon these seven heads, which tells us that these seven ruling dynasties are the real power behind St. Peter's throne! They are the ones in charge; they are the ones with the real authority! They are the ones who put the popes in power to do their bidding making the popes nothing more than religious figureheads!

One must also remember that the Vatican is a business corporation and that the pope is the CEO of that corporation! A corporation, by the way, that is over all the other corporations in the world, business and governments! But as the CEO he runs that corporation for the benefit of these seven ruling dynasties! Many have looked to the pope for centuries as the one in charge of the Vatican, others have come to believe that it is the Jesuit General who actually rules the Vatican, but now we see that the real power behind the Roman Catholic Church, that those who are really in charge are these seven ruling dynasties that are located in, or having come from, Italy.

We also might make mention of the great red dragon, drakon megas purros. The word for red here is purros and it can refer to the color red, or the word for fiery because the color of red would come from the idea of fire. The beast, or the dragon, speaks of the religious system that Satan started here on earth with Nimrod and Semiramis right after the flood; it spread from Babylon, down to Egypt, up to Greece, and then finally over to Rome where it has now taken its form in Catholicism.

It even took over Judaism back in the days of the prophets where it became firmly entrenched in the Israelites worshipping of the mother goddess, as we see in Jeremiah and Ezekiel, which was the reason for God judging and destroying the land. It was there in the days of the Lord where the Jews brought it back after their 70-year stay in Babylon. It was the worship conducted by the Pharisees, whom the Lord called the children of the devil, under the guise of worshipping Yahweh. And it is found today in what is known as Talmudic Judaism.

The seven heads, that is, the seven ruling dynasties that rule the Vatican, more than likely were at one time located in Italy, but could have moved from that area to other countries. One candidate for this is the royal family of England, the Windsors, who originally lived in northern Italy, but moved from there to Germany, then on to England around 600 years ago.

We also notice that on these seven heads were seven crowns! The word for crown here is diadema, which is the word, not for the victor's wreath, stephanos, but for an actual crown that kings wore! So what this tells us is that each one of these seven dynasties are the authority or power behind the Vatican; they are seven royal families!

These seven dynasties not only control the Roman Catholic Church, which was set up as a Luciferian front organization to deceive Gentiles away from truly knowing Jesus Christ, but they also control all Freemasonry around the world. The members of these families may appear to be Christians to the public they rule over, (to deceive them), but as Freemasons they are what is known as Gnostics, who believe just the opposite of what the Bible teaches. They believe that Lucifer is the good god and Jehovah is the bad one. It is said that these seven families are going to choose someone from their dynasties very soon to be the “messiah” of the world and he is going to go into a rebuilt third temple in Jerusalem, shed his own blood with a knife, and offer it as a sacrifice for the world. The Black Nobility families consists of seven families that are still in existence today: Colonna, Massimo, Pallavicini, Orsini, Borghese, Odescalchi, and Ludovisi. Not saying they are, but along that idea.

Gog and Magog - #51 7-17-14

The name Agag first comes up in the Bible in Numbers 24:7, “He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.”, which was written around 1440 BC. We find the word Agag used again around 300 years later in 1 Samuel 15:8, “And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.”, which was written circa 1100-1000 BC.

Now what’s interesting is that when the Septuagint translators came across the word Agag in Numbers 24:7, and in 1 Samuel 15:8,9,20,32,33 they translated it as Gog and not Agag! They said that Agag was an unused Arab root. Because the word is found three hundred years apart, it appears that the word Agag (Gog) was a title handed down to the kings of the Amalekites.

Now who were these Amalekites? They were the descendants of Amalek, who was the grandson of Esau. “And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz Amalek: these were the sons of Adah Esau's wife.” Genesis 36:12 And remember, it was Esau who had the birthright to the land of Israel as the firstborn son, but gave it away for a bowl of stew to his younger brother Jacob. A foolish act that he regretted all his life and was a constant source of bitterness to him. This act passed the right to the land of Israel over to Jacob and on down to the Lord Jesus Christ. After this Esau’s name became Edom. “Thus dwelt Esau in mount Seir: Esau is Edom.” Genesis 36:8

The Jacobites and Edomites were the same race, but had different physical characteristics. They were full brothers having the same mother and father. And this would explain why up through the Lord’s time and probably still going on today, that the Edomites are always trying to get the possession of the land of Israel, because they incorrectly think it is theirs by virtue of Esau’s birthright!

Now it is the Amalekites, who are one of the tribes of Edom, that are mentioned in Numbers 24:7, who have a man named Agag over them. And it is the Septuagint that translates his name as Gog! So what this is pointing to is that Gog and Magog really refer to this ancient tribe of Edomites, who descended from Esau! So Gog and Magog are really the Edomites, who later settled up north in Russia.

Who Gog and Magog really are has been a point of controversy and deep investigation over the centuries and for TV preachers to get up and say they know who it is and identify it with Russia flies in the face of history's greatest linguists and scholars. It is true that we can pin down the land as up in Russia, but this does not say that Gog is a Russian! "Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him," Ezekiel 38:2 It says that he rules over Russia. We also see Gog in Revelations 20:8, "And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.", but this is after Satan is released from the pit.

Perhaps it would help if we look at the experts in their fields over the years and see whom they identified Gog as. The historian Josephus back in 70 AD stated that Gog represented the Scythians. Wellhausen said the same thing and so did the theological linguist Delitzch, who said that Gog was the Lydian king Gyges, who was around 670 AD and the land of Gog was Lydia. Other scholars thought that it had a reference to the dynasty of Gagi in the territory north of Assyria, which was mentioned in the text of Ashurbanipal. Still others think it referred to a territory called Gaga (Lady Gaga) mentioned in an Amarna letter and was located north of Syria, perhaps around Carchemish.

Messel interpreted Gog as a subordinate commander in the army of Cyrus circa 400 BC. Winckler said that Gog was derived from Gaga in the Amarna letter and was a pseudonym for Alexander the Great, which would make Greece the land of Magog. Van den Born stated that Magog was the land of the Macedonians and that Alexander the Great was Gog. Something else and that is there are two giants named Gog and Magog who are the guardians of the financial district called the City of London.

In explaining Gog from historical circumstances the land of Magog is interpreted as an artificial land of Gog, or a Hebraizing of an Akkadian matGog, or matGaga in an Amarna letter. On the other hand some scholars think the name of a land called Magog was original and that the name Gog was derived from it. Magog was first mentioned in the genealogy of the nations as being one of the sons of Japheth, son of Noah. "The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras." Genesis 10:2

Besides the various attempts to explain these terms historically, others have tried to interpret these names as mythical forms. Van Hoonacker thinks they are derived from the Sumerian word gug for darkness and thus Magog is the land of darkness and Gog is the personification of darkness. Others have tried to make a connection between these terms and the Akkadian god Gog, which appeared in Enuma Elish, which would make his consort "Lady Gaga"!

While other scholars generally speak of Gog as the "powers hostile to God", or maintain that the names are only masks and coverings for a mythical power that has nothing to do with actual history. Gressman adopts the Gyges theory as far as the origin of the name is concerned, but he thinks that mythical ideas are behind this name and goes into the idea of the giants in those days of whom King Og was one. "And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei." Numbers 21:33

Og was a giant, a descendant of the Nephilim the last of the Rephaites and was immense in size. "For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits

the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.” Deuteronomy 3:11

But when looking at the name Og in the Hebrew we find something interesting, it is spelled Og in the English, but the Hebrew has it as אֹג, ‘AYIN O G. The letter ‘ayin is a guttural sound so it would be pronounced not as Og, but as Ghog. It would be easy to see how the pronunciation of Ghog with the soft G over the years could turn into pronouncing it as Gog with the hard G.

Now we know that Numbers 24:7 says, “He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.”, but the Septuagint translation of Agag was telling us that Gog is identified with the tribe of the Amalekites, one of the descendants of Esau! So what that would mean is that the end time Gog would be an Edomite, those from Esau’s lineage.

One can only imagine the tales that Esau/Edom told his children and grandchildren about how the land of Israel was supposed to have been his birthright because he was the oldest son and how his brother Jacob had stolen it from him through trickery! One can also imagine how that tribe could have plotted and schemed right to this very day to claim that the land belonged to them! It would be easy to confuse the true Israelites through Jacob and the Edomites through Esau because they came from the same parents and were the same race. But Esau apparently had red hair and a lot of body hair, while Jacob had smooth skin, that is, he wasn't hairy like his brother.

When President Bush arrived in Israel, he was presented a document called Megillat Bush, or the Bush Scroll. It was presented by the New Jewish Congress, the Sanhedrin, and the Holy Temple and Temple Mount movements. The scroll declared and reasserted Divine right for the Jews to have an undivided land of Israel and city of Jerusalem. I have a copy of this scroll in front of me, and the striking thing about it is the title by which President Bush is called. The two lines preceding the second paragraph of the scroll read as follows: “Esteemed Mr. George W. Bush, The Chief Prince of Meshech and Tubal. (Ezekiel 38:1) Leader of the West.”

Despite their generally negative depiction in the Bible, Lord Mayors of the City of London carry images of Gog and Magog (depicted as giants) in a traditional procession in the Lord Mayor’s Show. According to the tradition, the giants Gog and Magog are guardians of the City of London, and images of them have been carried in the Lord Mayor's Show since the days of King Henry V. The Lord Mayor’s procession takes place each year on the second Saturday of November.

Why would the high councils of the State of Israel call President Bush by this title? Ezekiel 38:1-3 reads as follows: “And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.” The remainder of the chapter goes on to tell us that this “chief prince” brings forth a great war in the Middle East, involving many nations. Are we, at this very time, witnessing the fulfillment of some of the last prophecy? How much more specific can it get? We also know that President Bush is continually railing against Iran as a great threat to peace. Will this Gog of the land of Magog, the chief Prince of Meshech and Tubal, start a war with Iran?

The City of London is a one square mile financial district within London City that controls the finances of the world and thus controls the entire world including America. 7-17-14 mp3 class #51

We are all familiar with the term Jews, but what does that mean and who are the Jews anyway? If one even wishes to discuss this subject, then he is labeled an anti-Semite by these “Jews”. But there is a group of people who call themselves Jews, but are not Jews and this from the mouth of the Lord. “I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.” Revelations 2:9 “Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.” Revelations 3:9
To lie is to speak something that is not factually true.

It is important for us today to understand this because what is going on in America, all over the world and the nation of Israel, is taking place because of this one concept. So we need to go back to the beginning and see what happened between the two brothers Jacob and Esau. Esau had the right of birth to what is called the land of Israel today because he was the first born son of Isaac and Rebekah, but Esau sold his inheritance to his brother over a pot of stew, so now Jacob was the heir of the land.

One can only imagine the bitterness that followed afterward and what he told his children of how he was cheated by his brother out of the land. Of course he probably left out the fact that he was flesh oriented, hungry and could have cared less about it at the time! “For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.” Hebrews 12:17

Now to see how much this impacted Esau concerning what happened between the two he hated his brother and plotted to kill him after the mourning period of his father had passed. “And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob.” Genesis 27:41

So we can see that Esau did not let this matter drop and he did not forgive his brother, but had bitter hatred in his heart. Because of the death a threat Jacob was forced to flee to Padanaram, where he lived outside the land of his inheritance. It was years later that Jacob came back to the land and met Esau and apparently the matter had been forgiven. The problem is the rightful heir to the land is back to claim his inheritance and where do you think that left the children of Esau? Now they are dispossessed and the best scenario is that Jacob could allow them to live there, but they would never own it! So combine that with the stories of bitterness and cheating they had heard from their father over the years that had transpired we see trouble brewing in Esau's descendant who are now called Edomites.

Many of the wars that the Israelites fought were against the Edomites, the descendants of Esau, who opposed what God was doing from the beginning and were trying to get their land back. It was they later on that yelled out to tear the Temple of God down to the ground. “*Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof.” Psalms 137:7 KJV “*Remember, Lord, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell. “Tear it down,” they cried, “tear it down to its foundations!” Psalms 137:7 NIV

We need to remember that both Jacob and Esau were of the same race, both having the same mother and father, even though they had different physical appearances and different seed. The difference was that the almighty Yahweh had chosen to enter into a covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, not Esau. And a part of that covenant was concerning whom he gave the land to live on. Esau was not party to that covenant. But as far as his descendants were concerned they rejected any concept of a covenant with Yahweh and considered the land theirs by the fleshly right of the firstborn son, who was Esau!

So that explains why all the wars the Edomites had with the Israelites because they believed that the land was theirs and the children of Israel, that is, the 12 tribes of Israel had no right to be there at all! It explains why they yelled out to tear the temple of Yahweh down to the ground! That's because they not only rejected the Israelites, but also the Israelites' God and the Temple dedicated to the God of the Israelites! Which means that they would also reject the Son this God would send to the Israelites.

So who really is a Jew, that is, a racial Jew? Technically it would be those descendants from the tribe of Judah, or those who came from the Kingdom of Judah in the south. But in time it came to be a term for all the Israelites, the 12 tribes of Israel, even though they were not from the tribe of Judah. But one thing is for sure, it could never refer to Esau and the Edomites, even though they were of the same parents as Jacob/Israel was. (Jacob's name was changed to Israel, which would make his sons the 12 tribes of Israel). And God always referred to them as the sons of Israel, not Jews in the OT.

Now over the years the Edomites intermarried with the descendants of Ishmael, Arabs and Hittites, but they also did with the descendants of Israel because they were plotting a way to get their inheritance back! They were later known as Idumaeans, but through an alliance with a powerful leader called Antipater they were allowed to be called "Jews", if they submitted to circumcision.

It was through Antipater that the wicked king Herod the Great came, (37bc-4bc), which would make him an Edomite/Idumean, and it was Herod who murdered all the male children of Israel under two years of age, when he had heard that the rightful king of the Jews had been born! The Edomites also were seated in the various positions of power both in the priesthood and politics. And it was Pilate, who brought Herod, who was allied to Rome so he could keep his position of power, into the matter.

It was Herod the Great who refurbished the Temple of God, but wasn't allowed into the Temple, so he built his palace attached to the Temple. He also made his palace higher than the Temple, which was in effect placing himself above the Temple of God! This palace was referred to as "The Citadel", which he renamed "The Tower of Antonia", or "Fort Antonia" to ingratiate himself to Mark Antony. It was an abomination for any non-Israelite to enter into the Temple of God, but to attach one's palace to the temple wall and above it was an abomination of unspeakable proportions!

The "Wailing Wall" that the Jews go to with their prayers, and any American leader who wants to get anywhere in politics goes, to make their nod to the Jews, is really not the ancient Temple of God, but is in fact the wall of this ancient palace built by Herod, who was an Edomite! Christ stated that not one stone of the old Temple would be left in place because of God's judgment. These massive stones of the Wailing Wall are really what were left of this tower of the Edomites. (Bowling to the Edomites).

Something else on this is the passage where the devil takes the Lord to the "pinnacle" of the Temple to have him cast himself down. "Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple," Matthew 4:5 "And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:" Luke 4:9

The first thing we want to notice is that the definite article the is used in the passage and not the indefinite article a drawing our attention to one particular thing! The next thing we notice is that it is in the singular and not the plural. And the next thing we notice is that the word heiros is used to denote the entire temple complex. The Greek has it as, επι το πτερυγιον του ιερου, epi pterugion tou heirou.

Now the word for pinnacle is pterugion, which meant a winglet, or a wing attached to a wall and that's exactly what we have here with Herod's palace, which shows that the Edomites had control over the Temple situation and that the devil took Christ up to this place to have him cast himself down!

September 23, 2015 – Day of Atonement. (Coincidence?)

September 23, 2015 – Pope's visit to the US at the White House; later he addresses the Congress.

September 24, 2015 – French politician said in 2013; we have only 500 days left.

September 25, 2015 – Pope addresses the UN.

September 25, 2015 – The New World Order will be implemented.

September 28, 2015 – Final Blood Moon and Passover.

October 20, 2015 - The New World currency will be implemented; it will be announced by the International Monetary Fund.

The Roman Catholic Pope just announced when he speaks at the United Nations on the 25th September 2015 that he will issue an ENCYCLICAL – The definition of an encyclical is – A letter from the Pope sent to all Roman Catholic Bishops throughout the world. Every Roman Catholic is EXPECTED to obey. There are 1.2 billion Roman Catholics around the world.

According to Pastor Williams this means that when the Pope announces the New World Order in front of the annual gathering of world leaders on September 25, 2015 at the United Nations just before the signing and implementation of the 'Post-2015 Development Agenda' that the Pope will order every Roman Catholic around the world to obey unconditionally – total obedience – including the acceptance of the Mark of the Beast when it is announced.

It is the False Prophet who causes all to receive the Mark of the Beast, which also implies that they have to accept the New World Order, and the Pope is the False Prophet! “And he (the False Prophet, who is the – the Pope), causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” Revelations 13:16,17

The False Prophet (the Pope) will appear to be a Christian, but in truth he is Satan's man. His outward appearance is one of being one of the sheep belonging to Jesus Christ, but he really is one of the wolves of the devil. “And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” Revelations 13:11

He may refer to himself as being a Christian, but he is not! Just like those who call themselves Jews, but they aren't. In truth they are of the devil. “I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.” Revelations 2:9 “Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.” Revelations 3:9

Some are also saying that the period of time from June 6, 1947 to September 23, 2015 is the seven weeks, $7 \times 7 = 49$, $(7+60+2+1) = 70$, of Daniel 9:25, “Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.” #53 8-02-15 #54

The term The Muslim Brotherhood is being thrown around on TV and the Internet recently and most think that it has to do with what is going on over in the Middle East, but reports have now come out by the highest ranking generals and admirals in America that the Muslim Brotherhood has been brought in by Obama and has penetrated every department of the US government at the highest levels, even in the Pentagon and into all of our surveillance agencies!

In the 1920's a young Egyptian named Hassan Al-Banna revived the Muslim Brotherhood, which had its origins in the same Grand Lodge of Cairo that also spawned the Jewish Cabala, Freemasonry, the Knights Templar and the Illuminati board of directors. Al-Banna was an admirer of Adolf Hitler. We see that all these groups, the Jewish Cabala, Freemasonry here in America and abroad, the Knights Templar and the Illuminati control virtually every organization on earth, and all have their origin in the Grand Lodge of Cairo, Egypt. These groups all appear to be different and in different countries, but they are all Freemasons and come from the same source and are bound together by mutual treaties.

The House of Saud (Saudi Arabia) provided information to US intelligence on how to create mind-controlled assassins. The Muslim Brotherhood claims to have first perfected this technique during the 11th century Crusades when it launched a brutal parallel secret society known as the Assassins, who employed mind-controlled “lone gunmen” to carry out political assassinations of Muslim Saracen nationalists. The Muslim Brotherhood Assassins worked in concert with Knights Templar invaders in their attacks on progressive Arabs. (Background of the Assassins).

The Assassins took their name from the Arabic word hashshasin, meaning “hashish smoker”. Another Arabic word, assaseen, translates “guardians of the secrets”. The group was founded in 1094 by Hasan bin Sabah, who shares his surname with the crooked ruling family of Kuwait who themselves descend from the Hashemite clan. Hasan was schooled in the secrets of the Jewish Cabala and studied at the Grand Lodge of Cairo, which also spawned the Afghan Illuminated Ones - the Roshaniya – who terrorized that country under the leadership of Bayezid Ansari in the 16th century.

So we see that the Grand Lodge of Cairo was the tree from whence all this came, but what about its origins? The Muslim Brotherhood gave the world the Assassins and the Assassins emerged from the Ismaili Muslim sect, which claims descendency from the Hebrew patriarch Abraham and his surrogate wife Hagar. The Ismaili's formed “Societies of Wisdom”, which morphed into the Grand Lodge of Cairo. The Druses that came to run the lodge claimed to be both Christians and Muslims (Obama also) and their protocol mirrored that of Grand Orient Freemasonry (France). The Cairo Lodge turned out the fanatics who aided the Knights Templar in their Crusade battles against Saracen Muslim nationalists.

The two major players over in the Middle East today are the descendants from Ishmael, (Ismael) commonly referred to as the Arabs today, and the descendants from Esau, who are Biblically referred to as Edomites; who are commonly referred to as “Jews” today, but they are really not Jews, nor are they from any of the 12 tribes of Israel. “Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.” Revelations 3:9

Why this is important for us to know is so we won't get caught up by all the propaganda on TV. The Arabs claim that the promises God made to Abraham really applied to them because Ishmael was Abraham's firstborn son! The Edomites claim that the promises made to Abraham and Isaac were to them because Esau was Isaac's firstborn son! So both of these groups, through their secret societies, are fighting over the control of the Middle East, but both groups were outside of God's covenant.

Obama is a Muslim plant put in the White House by the Saudis and Tom Clancy was exposing this "Manchurian Candidate" in his latest book before he was murdered and didn't finish his book. Obama is also a Freemason, which is connected to all Freemasonries around the world going back to the Muslim Brotherhood once again. So we have, again, his connection to the Muslim Brotherhood. And as the top brass in the military have publicly stated; he has placed the Muslim Brotherhood in every key position in our government, even the Pentagon and all our surveillance agencies.

A 7 Year Time Line Possibility Scenario

1947-2017 = 70 years Israel becomes a nation in 1947 by UN.

1947-2009 = 62 years...2009 Obama takes office.

2009-2016 = 7 years... Obama is now the "president" of USA, Inc..

2009-2010 = 1 year... he implements in 2010 Obama Care and its RFID chip (Mark of the Beast).

2016-2017 - Possibility of Obama making peace treaty lasting 1 week or 7 years as per Daniel; it falls apart 6 months down the road and leads to Armageddon. 2017 all are forced into Obama care.

We know that the Tribulation is 7 years long and is the last years of 70 years. So possibly the 7 years Tribulation began in 2010, since then he has caused 11 separate countries to fall: Libya, Egypt, Syria, Ukraine, Yemen, Somalia and others by the hand of ISIS where the Muslim Brotherhood is cutting of heads and killing Christians and now they are invading Europe and soon the USA in mass.

The Woman Clothed with the Sun

"And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered." Revelation 12:1,2 Here I believe we see a symbolic picture of the redeemed nation of Israel, (not Israel according to the flesh), who is put here as the woman and the birth of the Christ child. I believe this symbolism appeared as a sign in the skies over Jerusalem signaling his birth in the alignment of the stars on Rosh Hashanah 9/11/3 BC. (Romans 2:29; 9:6)

On that day the constellation Virgo (Woman) was clothed with the sun and the moon was under her feet. Above her head were the 3 planets Mercury, Venus and Jupiter, which were in alignment with the star Regulus in Leo; Regulus was also in conjunction with Jupiter. The 9 stars of Leo and the 3 planets make up the crown of 12 stars. This occurred on Rosh Hashanah 9/11/03 BC (9/11?) This is said to occur once again on 9/23/2017 AD 2 days after Rosh Hashanah on the day of Shabbat Shuvah (Return). Now the woman is mentioned twice in Revelations 12, or I should say, in two settings. 1) is when the child, or the Messiah Jesus is born; and 2) during the Tribulation where she will flee into the wilderness. So it appears that this sun, moon and stars alignment scenario also applies to both times.

The woman identified in Revelations 12:1, as being “clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:”, (the redeemed Israelites of the actual 12 tribes of Israel), is the one who will flee into the wilderness for 3 ½ years to be protected from the antichrist.

“And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” Revelations 13:11 Like a lamb is homoia arnio and spake as a dragon is elalei hos drakon.

The significance of homoia is resemblance, where one thing looks like another thing, or it resembles it, but it is not derived from it. Two men may look exactly like each other, but have different parents. One egg may look exactly like another egg, but their origin is different; they are not of the same parents. In some cases the resemblance could be so perfect that only a DNA test would show the difference. Like a lamb tells us that the False Prophet resembles one of Christ’s sheep, but he is not; his origin is not of Christ, nor of the body of Christ.

The word for, as, spake as a dragon, is hos, which is used to denote a characteristic quality of someone or some thing. Which is to say is that the words the False Prophet speaks have the characteristic quality of a dragon! What this is telling us is that the religious False Prophet will resemble a Christian, even be the spokesman for Christianity, but he is not a Christian and the words he speaks are characteristic of the words or doctrines of Satan - not Jesus Christ!

This present pope has publicly stated that you do not have to believe on Christ to be saved or go to heaven. He further stated you can be an atheist and still go to heaven! What this has effectively done is remove Jesus Christ totally from God’s plan of salvation. If man can go to heaven because he is good or sincere, then there is no need for Christ’s death on the cross to pay the penalty for our sins! This is heresy and blasphemy of the first order. These are not the words of Christ’s sheep, but the devil!

And with Obama saying that he is going to run for the position of the UN’s Secretary General to be the World-Ruler this December 31, 2016, we now have something that is beginning to be scary for now we have two blatant candidates for the antichrist and False Prophet on the scene. #55 1-14-15 #56
